We proudly introduce the 1957 Skyline. Just as the universe has its stars and fast moving comets, U.T.H.S. has its students and faculty members who also live in a fast moving circle. To keep up with this moving cycle, astronomy has been chosen as the theme. This year a new section called student life has been added to create a more vivid picture of life at U.T.H.S. In years to come we hope that this book will bring back to you those precious memories of your high school days.

When we think of astronomy, which is the theme of this yearbook, we think of the sun, the moon, the stars and planets and comets and a great expansive space reaching out into the unknown. Likewise, when United Township High School is mentioned, we think of light and warmth that comes to us from our study, from our varied experiences, and from our contacts. We think of the stars of our literary and athletic teams, of the bright spots of four years of living together, of the flashes of insights into character and personality, and of the great depths of friendship that have been formed that will reach out into all of our lives and remain as long as any of us exist.

Truly the influence of our school in our lives is of astronomical proportion, the importance of which will be realized more fully as the days and years go by. May this year book be a constant reminder of the events that have occurred while we are here and serve to make the experiences of the present meaningful and pleasant in the days to come.

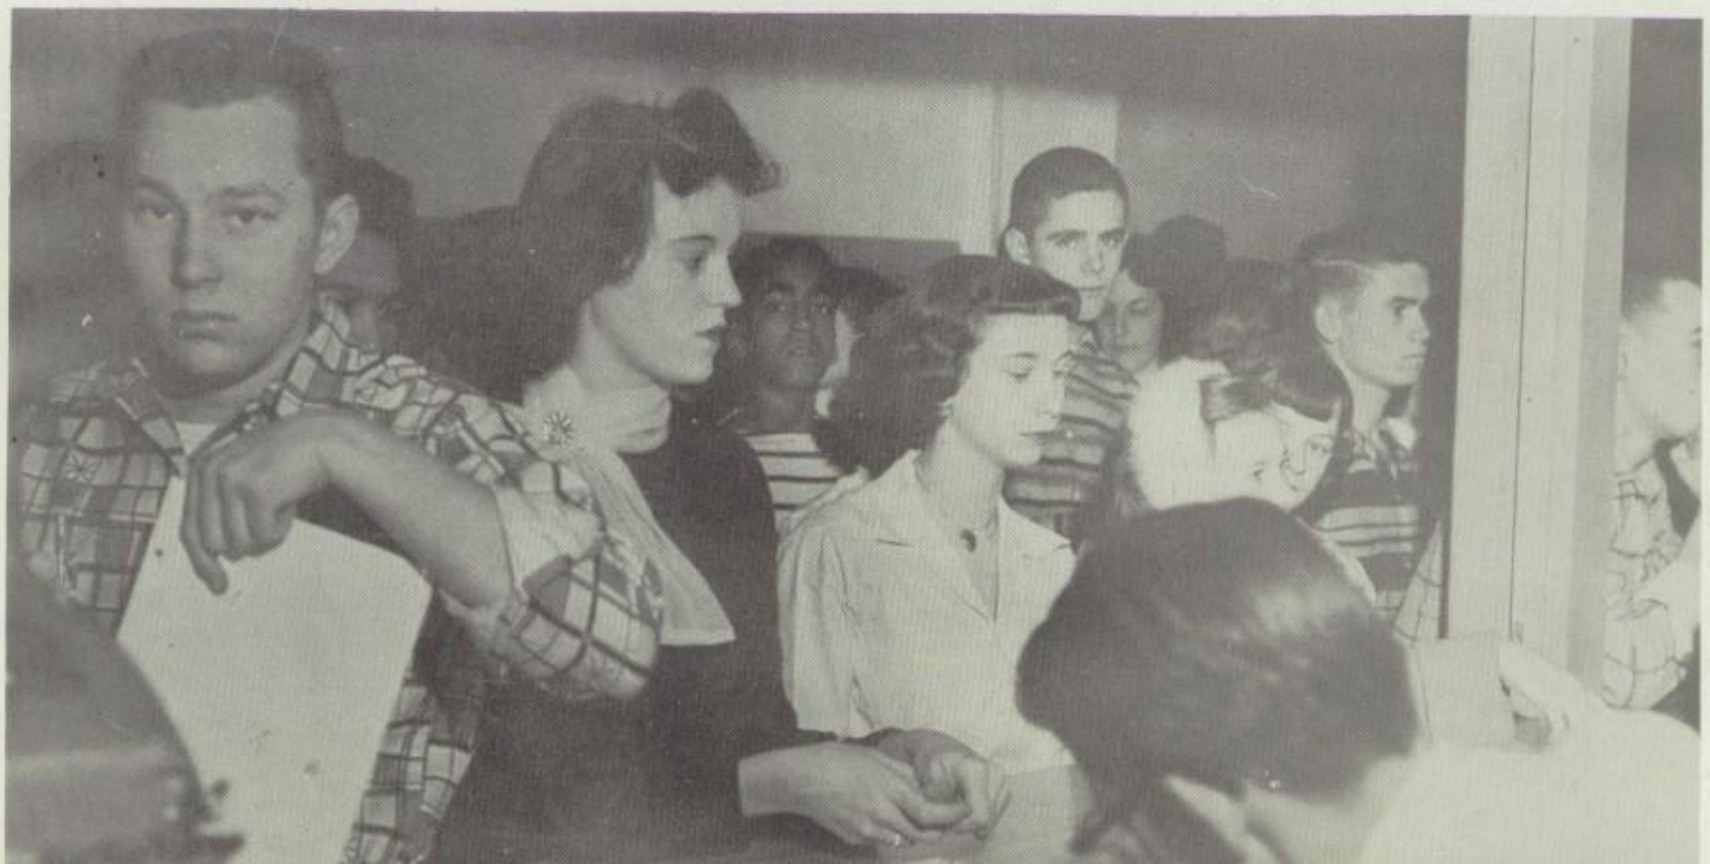
The bus stops — students pile out — and a day at U.T.H.S. begins.

Hang up the coat — and have a couple's confab before class.

A TELESCOPIC VIEW OF A U.T.H.S. DAY

Buying supplies at the book store seems a serious matter before the dash for first hour class.



First hour — informal atmosphere — Mr. Levin perches on desk to give his Sophomores the low-down.

SOCIALIZING, LEARNING, EATING

Lunch time — antics and eating.

No kidding?!

You aren't serious? — Are you?

I think they're spoofing —

Senior study hall and Ron Bjork comes to after a little snooze. Looks as though he is getting up on the wrong side of the desk.

THE DAY PROGRESSES--TO AN ACTIVITY

Library means moments of concentrated study for some of us. Mary Jo reads before that next class.

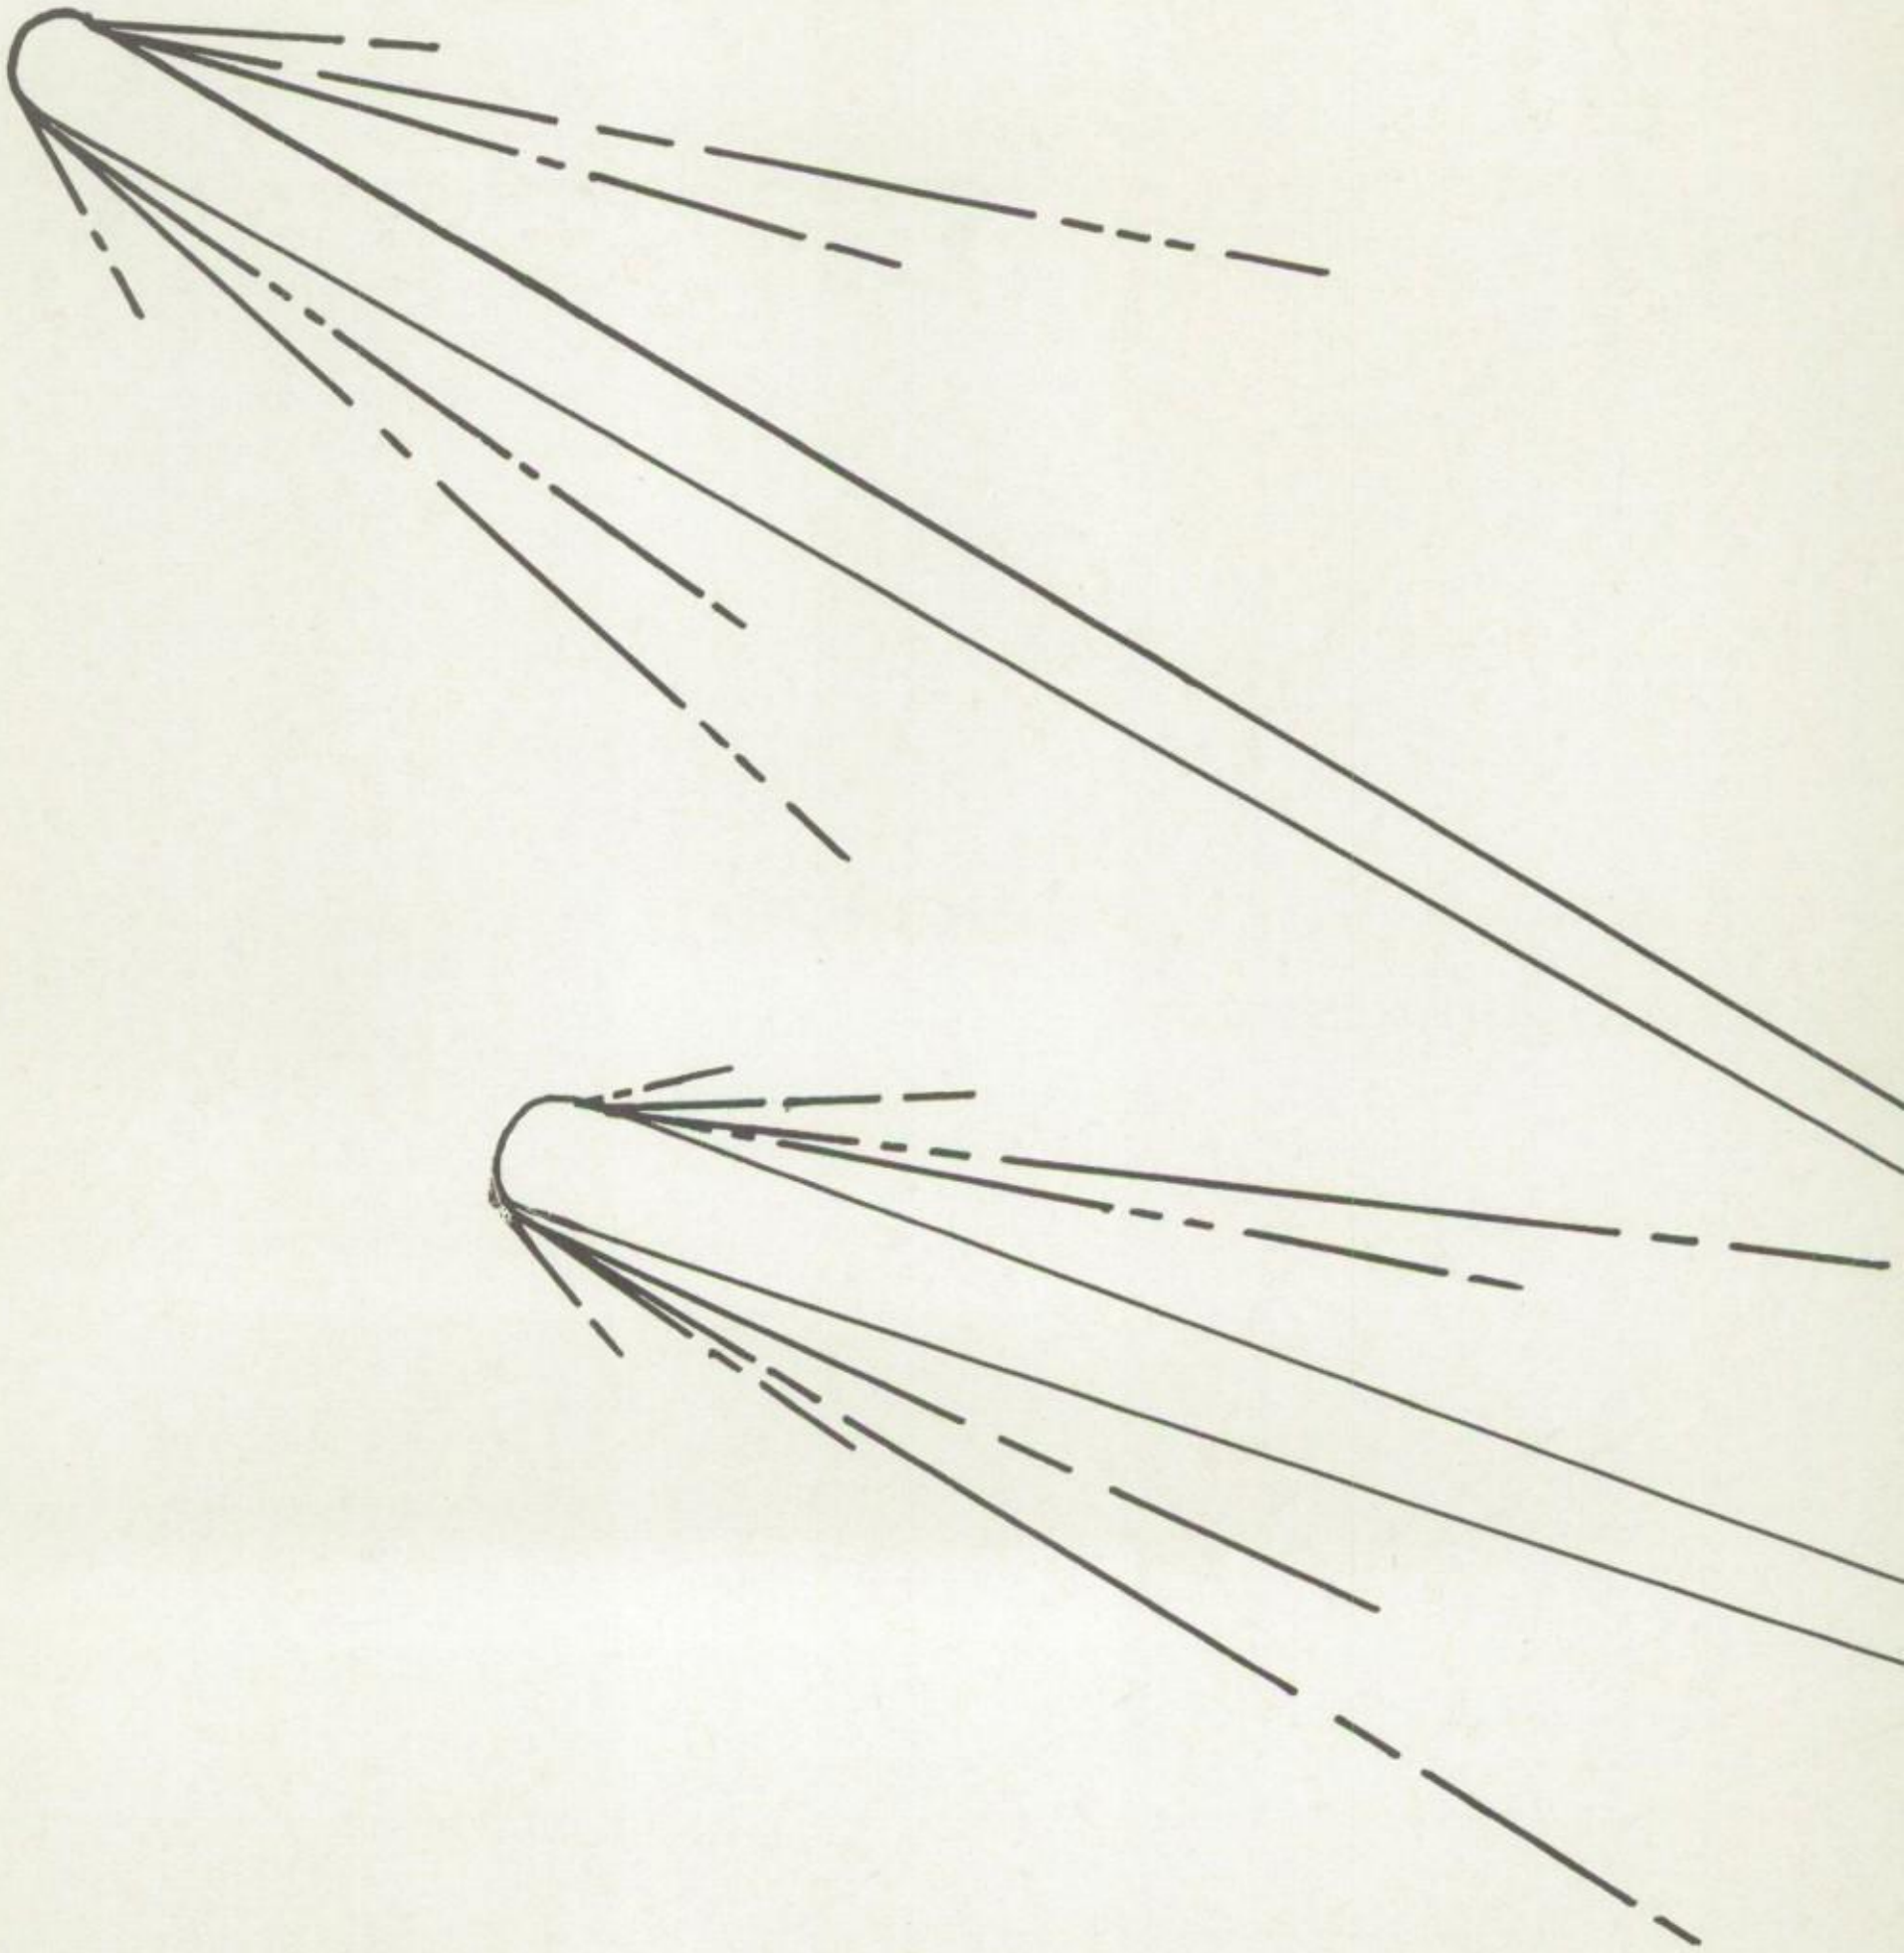
Madonnas — stars — evergreen — Christmas brings after school activities in the art room.

The l-o-o-ng reach for an o-o-h so yummy candy bar before starting home.

THEN HOME

Happy-hurrying-home — until tomorrow when Roland and others start another day at U.T.H.S.

CLASSES



Sweet harmony — The senior class officers and their advisor tried to harmonize and promote all senior class functions during the year. Around the piano are Miss Calvert, advisor; Marie Tanck, secretary-treasurer; Jo Elaine Elias, vice-president; and Pete Tsakanikas, president.

SENIORS

Success — as far away as a star,
But we will reach for stars.

From the first days we entered the U.T.H.S. halls last fall till the time we marched down the aisles at Commencement, our senior year was one mad, hectic, gay time for all of us. Many nights were spent slaving over the senior class float and we were rewarded when it won first place for beauty.

The senior ball was really the star on our horizon which we all waited for. After that came our assembly with the seniors providing the entertainment by reading the senior will, singing, dancing, and performing slapstick comedy. At the class picnic we ate, played baseball, and goofed off to our hearts content — our last activity as a class before Commencement.

Our class colors were orchid and white, and our flower was a yellow rose. We chose, "He who conquers all is strong; He who conquers himself is mighty," as our class motto.

JUNIORS

Before us is our milky way —
Stretching across our coming year.

Our junior year was one of work and activity. This was our year for perusing long historical novels for American history classes — Gone With the Wind being a big favorite. This was also our year to spend long hours in the library with reference books piled high in front of us as we worked on our English research paper. And this was our year to take our Junior Proficiency Test and then sweat for a few days, wondering if we passed or not. There were 23 of us who had no worries and made the honor roll with flying grades. We kept ourselves busy with a homecoming float, a musical assembly, and of course, the Junior-Senior Prom where we decorated around the theme Deep Purple.

SOPHOMORES

We are an island universe
Learning to recognize
Other luminous star groups

No longer the frightened freshman, we are those who think themselves the assured and world-wise. We set out to prove ourselves capable of many things. The first of these was the four wins and three losses of our football team this season. The second world-shaking event occurred when our Homecoming float won first prize in originality. Third on the list of our achievements during our sophomore year was our basketball team's brilliant record of one loss out of fifteen games in mid-season. An important event occurring at the end of each semester was the list of honor roll students, proving which class was the smartest when 46 sophomores topped the list out of a total of 121 students. Last, but not least, was the entertaining sophomore assembly on March 15th.

FRESHMEN

We see the skyline
And beyond,
The heavens dotted with suns
Whose orbits we will follow.

Four hundred and fifty strong, we started our high school days off with a bang, enthusiasm was our byword. Hard work produced our prize winning homecoming float, as Elvis and his houn' dog from Ambrose came through as the most humorous. Our assembly made use of all the talented among us. Two sets of cheerleaders cheered our Orange and Black basketball teams from a slow start into a bright finish, as well as cheering the hard fighting football team. This was our first year and we got our feet wet in many activities and subjects, and then wrapped up the year with a party in the spring.

PETE PANTHER

A black, lithe panther bounced onto our stage one day — the bleachers rang with screams — The legendary Pete Panther came to life at UTHS. In place of the paper pictures there was a living replica of the Panther mascot. Pete attended all the basketball games and helped cheer the team on. His first appearance helped the Panthers upset their arch rival, Moline. This little black panther has to be taken care of, though. Only as long as Pete is treated properly and courteously will he continue to cheer for the Panthers. Phil Hutton, sophomore basketball manager, looked after Pete this year.

Prancing Pete meets the student body. Roy Miller, Advisory Board president, introduces Pete but can't seem to control him. Coach Kivisto, in the background, gave Pete an official welcome.

Will he bite? What makes him tick? The varsity cheerleaders give Pete a close examination.

CHEERLEADERS

The sophomore cheerleaders did an excellent job of cheering on their teams. They all exhibited both pep and spirit. The sophomore cheerleaders were, front: Carol Ovens, middle: Nancy Cropp, back: Kathy Smith, Donna Katsis, Sandra Kipp.

Freshman cheerleaders, from the left: Donna Penderson, Karen Saddoris, Pat Van Klaveren.

This year, the Freshman cheerleaders were divided into two groups. The two groups alternated, cheering first for the Black team, and then for the Orange.

Freshman cheerleaders: Nancy Boxstall, Debbie Anderson, Pam O'Klock.

Determination, cooperation, and good sportsmanship characterized Panther playing this season. East Moline fans also enjoyed a new style of football with the Panthers giving us the belly series of the split T offense. The team played well, although the season ended with three wins and five losses.

The offensive balls of fire were Jim Duff and Gary Dobereiner. Cherokee French shone as a leading pass receiver. Among the toughest of the defensive men were Jim Nelson, Tom Hopkins, and Denny Daniels. Denny was chosen as a member of the All Metropolitan Squad.

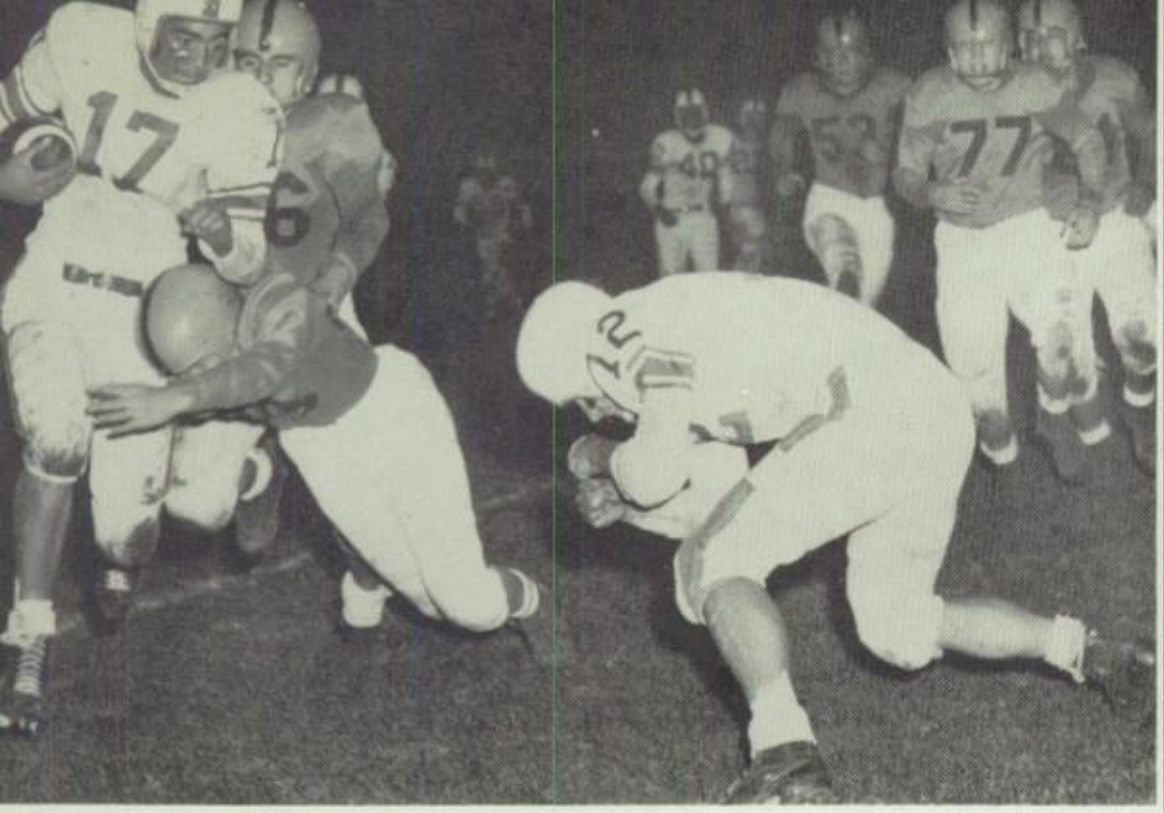
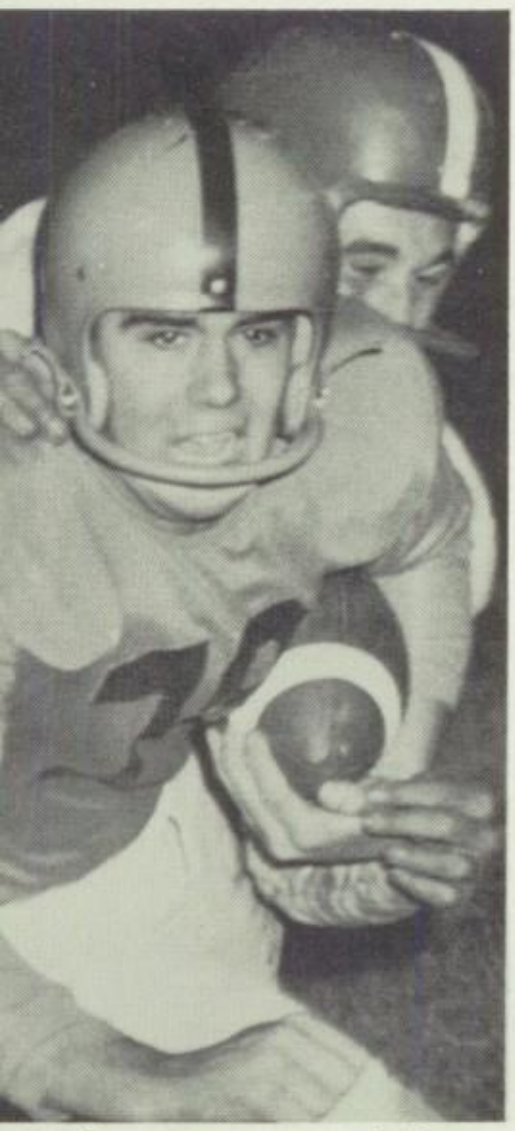
Football honors went to Tom Hopkins, best tackler and Jim Fisher, most improved player. Missing from the picture are Jim Nelson, most valuable player, and Denny Daniels, best blocker. Coach Wrenn is holding the traveling trophy for the winner of the Moline - East Moline game.

Calm in the midst of the storm — Tempers were flying but Jocko Wrenn controls his in the wake of the official's decision.



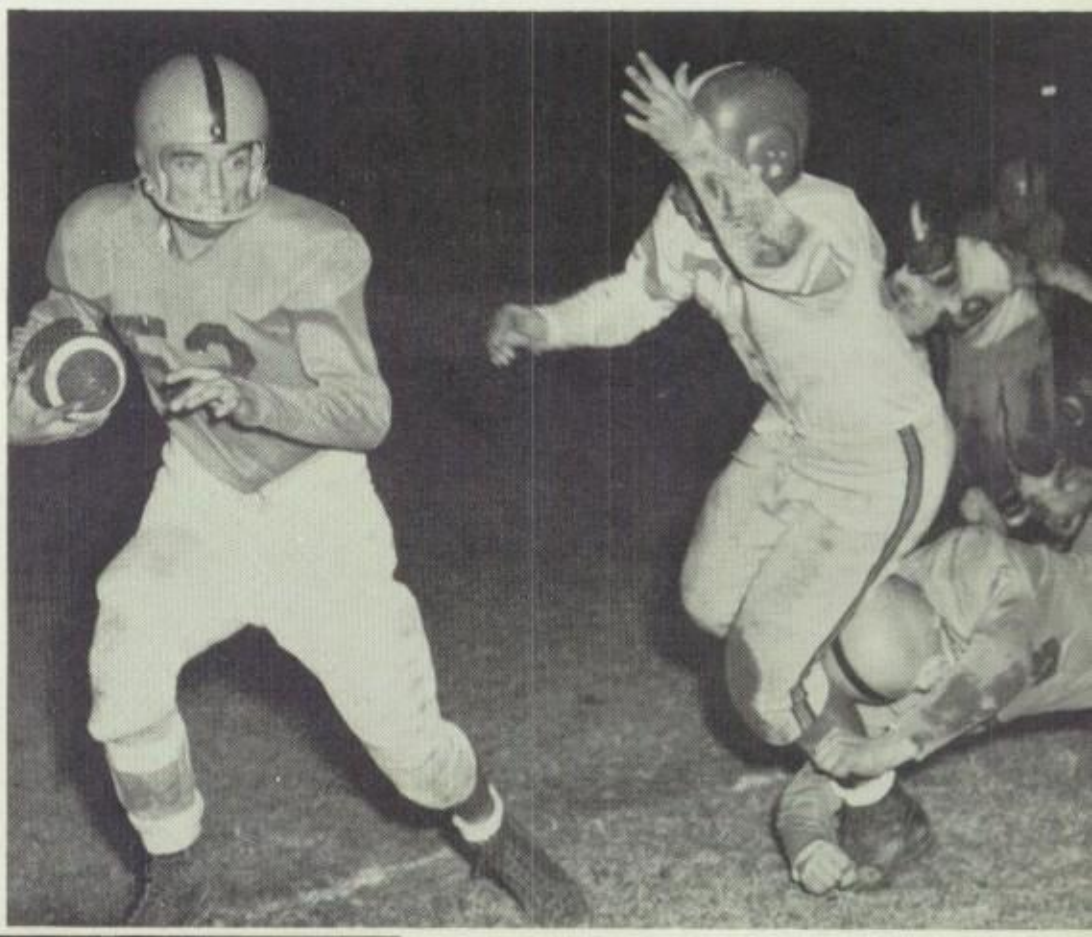
Cheer up Hoppy! Help is on its way.

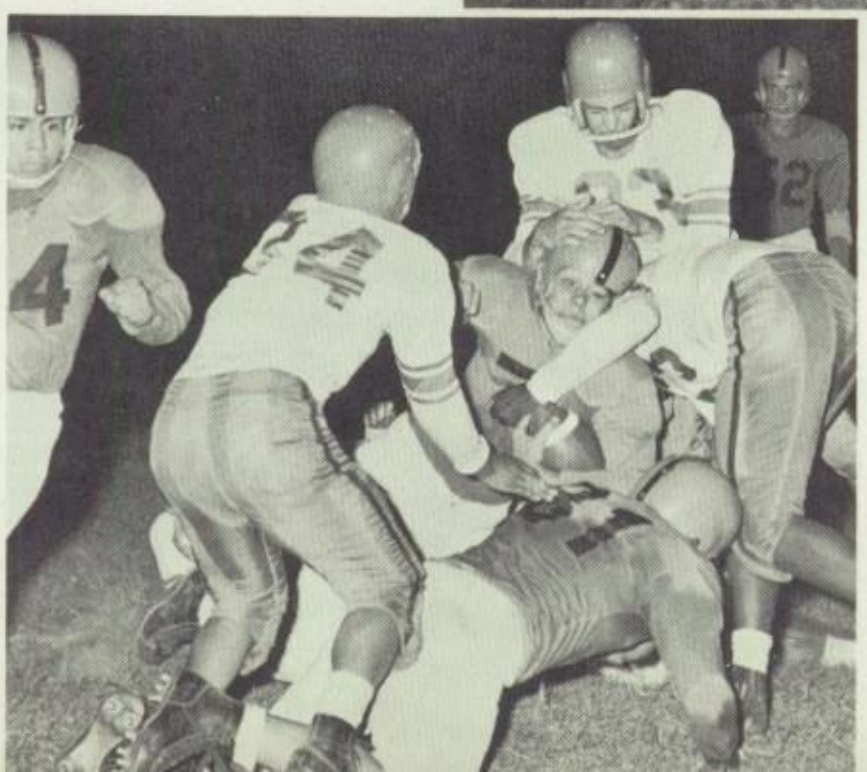
Tom Hopkins puts the stopper on a St. Ambrose player while Jim Nelson carefully steps over another.



"Get your cotton-pickin paws off of me!" cries Gary Dobereiner.

We are not heavenly
Yet we have our stars —
Some very bright —
Others not seen —
But all stars.





Dirty Pool! Russell Perkins slightly clips an unknown St. Ambrose player as Jim Duff hastily leaves the scene of the crime.

Doby doesn't look comfortable, although he is being cuddled by three Kewanee players.

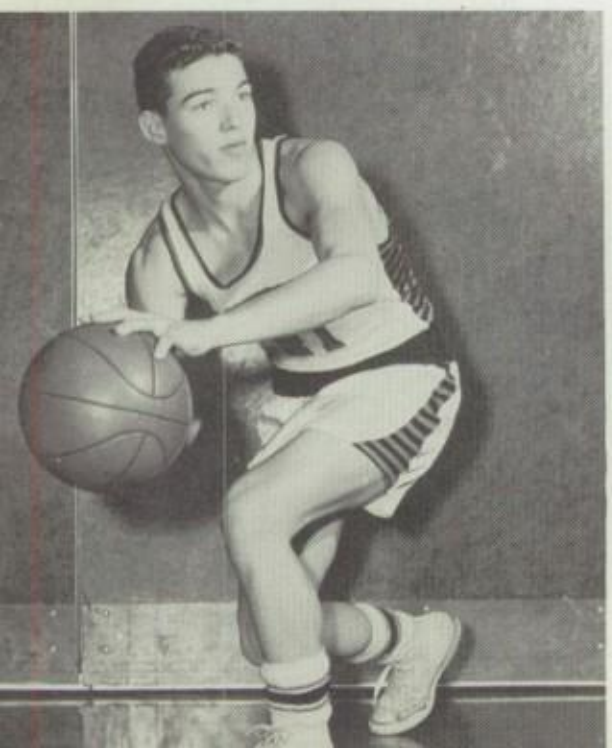
BASKETBALL

Varsity basketball this year provided the fans with much excitement. It was a close season with a twelve win and eleven loss record. A bright spot on this year's team was Cherokee French. Although only a junior, Cherokee set a new school record by grabbing 334 rebounds in 24 games. Because of his tremendous rebounding, Cherokee was voted the most valuable player by the other members of the team. The team also voted Delbert Carr as their captain, and Gary Hobbs as the most improved player. Delbert led the team in total points, free throws, field goal percentage, and free throw percentage.

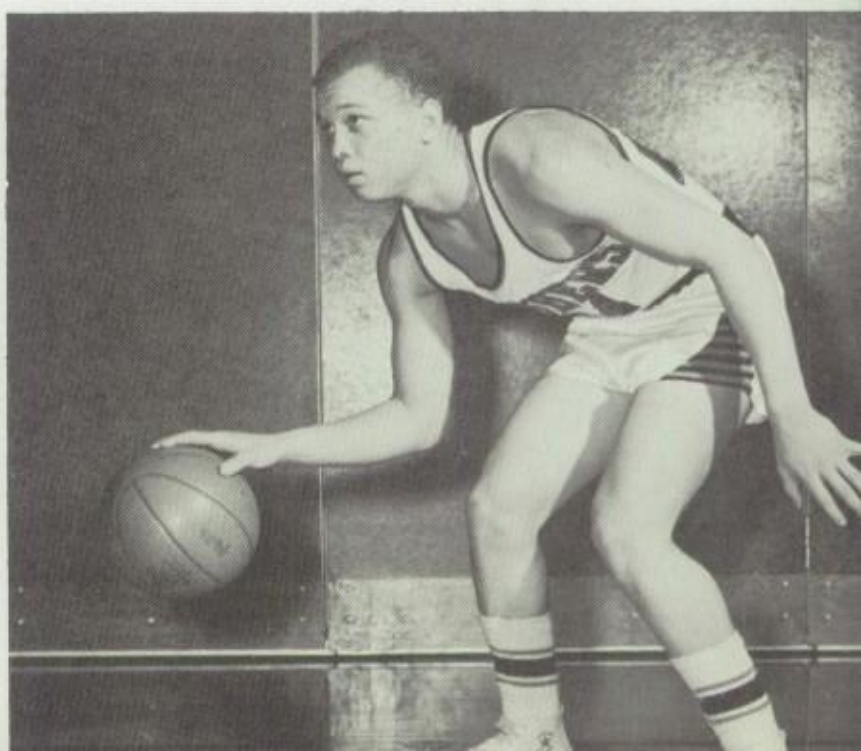
As a team, this year's Panthers, under the ever-watchful eye of coach Kivisto averaged 61 points per game, hit 40 per cent of their field goals, and 70 per cent of their free throws.

ED LASEK



Fancy Dans — Coach Kivisto could always count on Tom Hopkins and Ed Lasek when it came to skillful ball handling. We relied on it a lot this year.

TOM HOPKINS

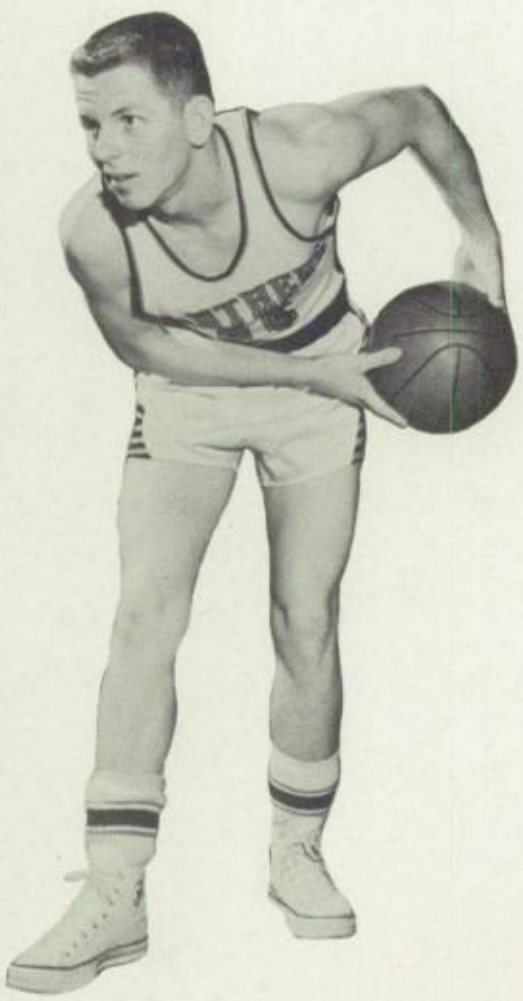


Cherokee French — Forward set a new school record of 334 rebounds. Total points: 268.

Gary Dobereiner—Forward three year varsity player. Total points: 288.

Dennis Sahr — Guard Junior playmaker of the Panthers. Total points: 306.

Delbert Carr — Guard captain and winner of the Ray Holmes Free Throw Trophy. Total points: 348.



Gary Hobbs — Center voted most improved player. Total points: 79.

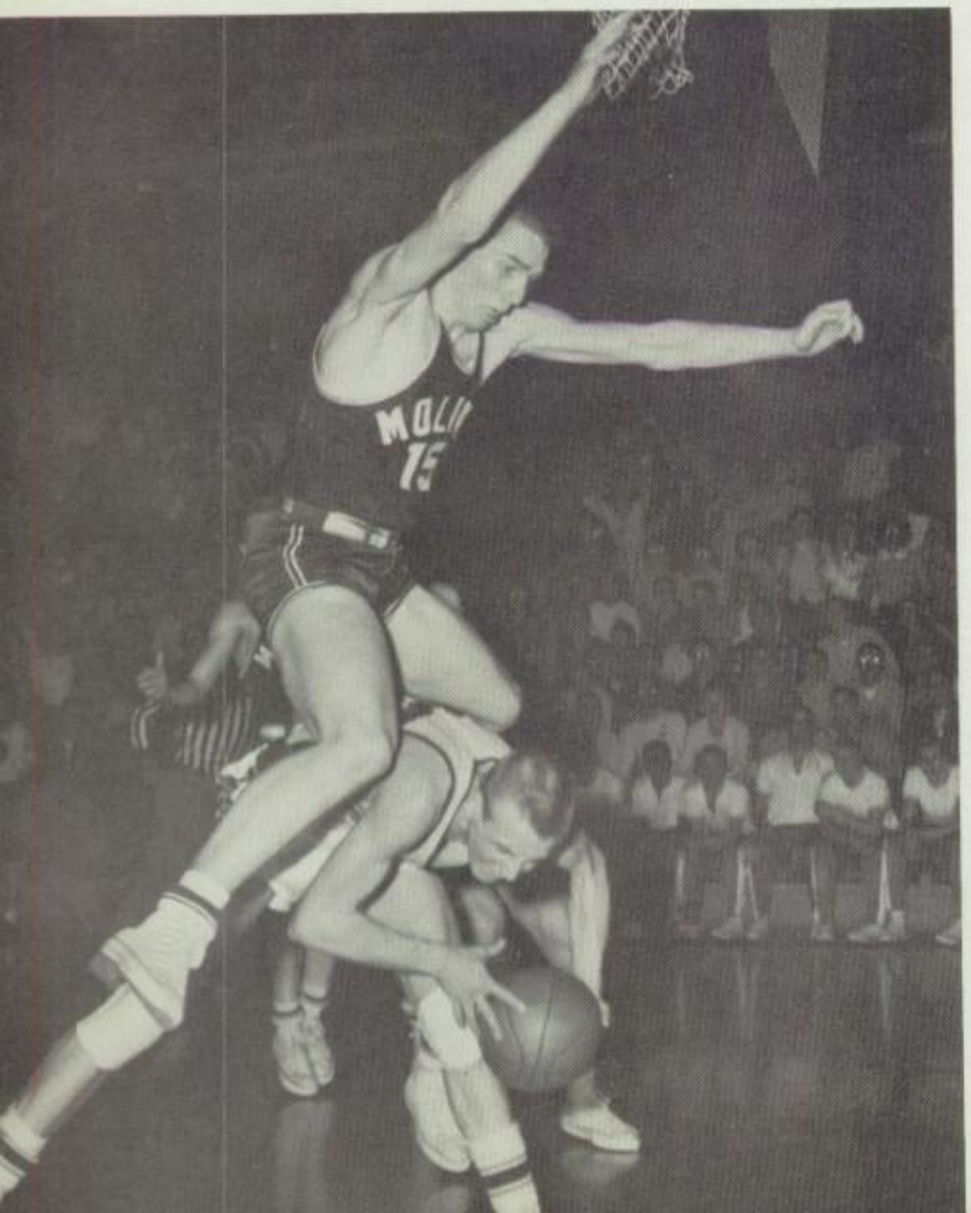
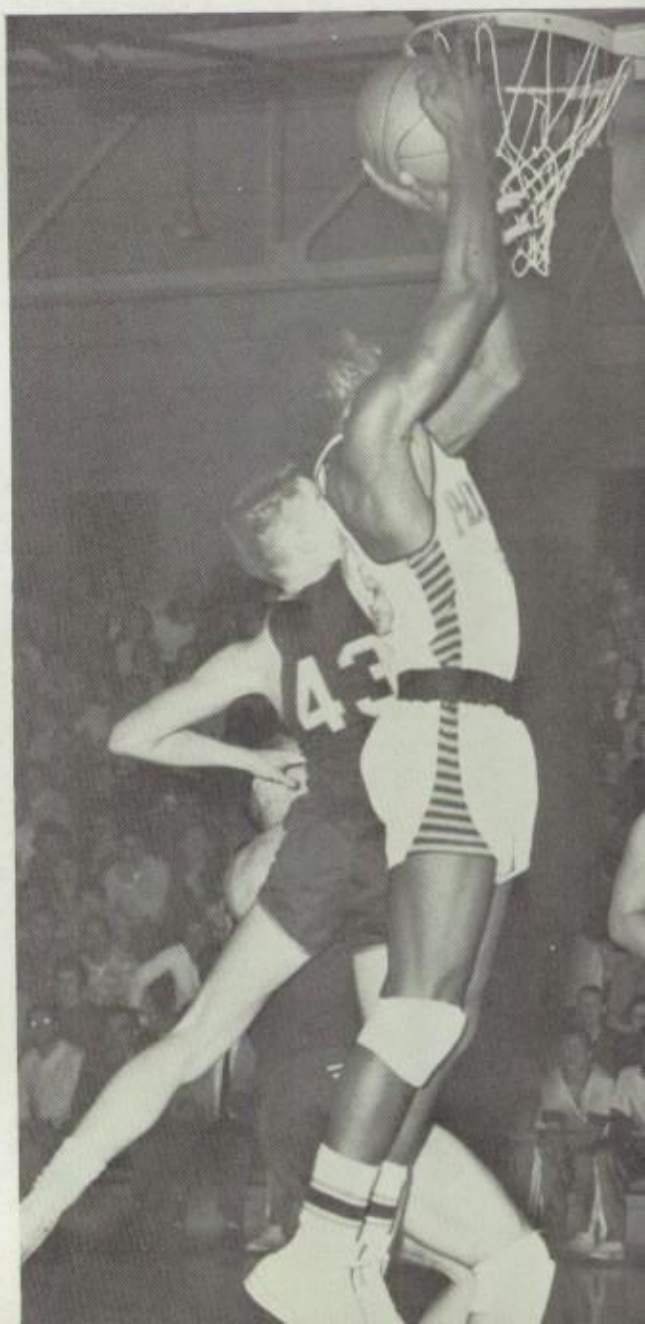
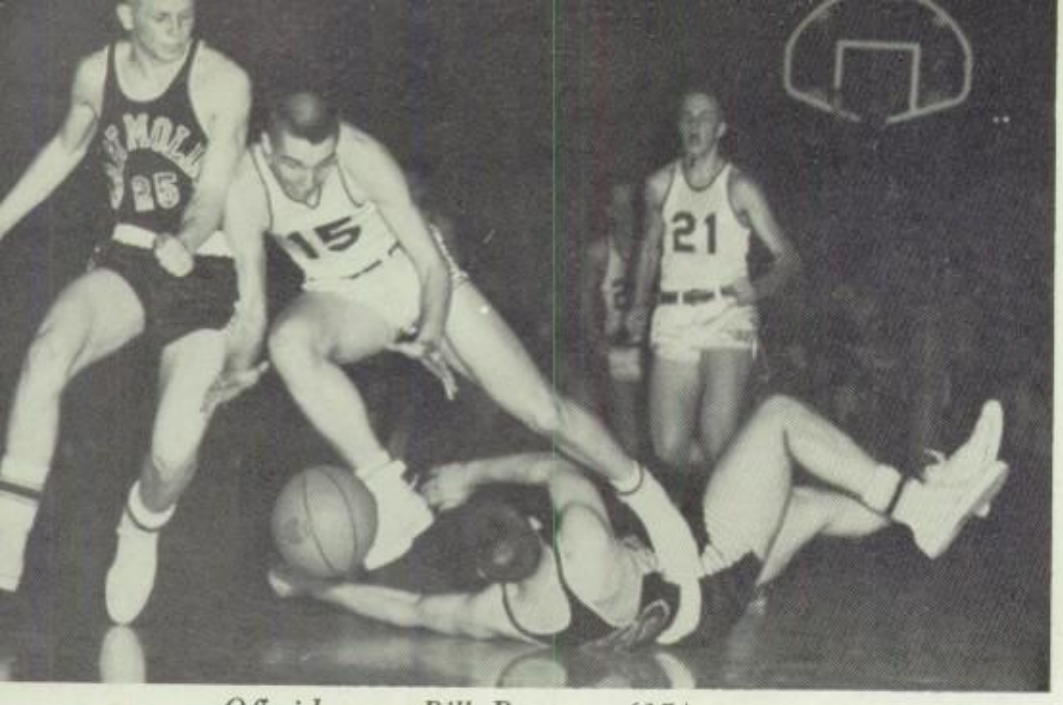
All eyes are on Delbert Carr as he grabs a rebound. Looking on are Doby and Cherokee, and Flowers (70), Shellhouse (76), and Dunlap (74), of Rock Island.

Whoa, horsey! Delbert Carr doesn't seem to appreciate the antics of Bill Parsons.

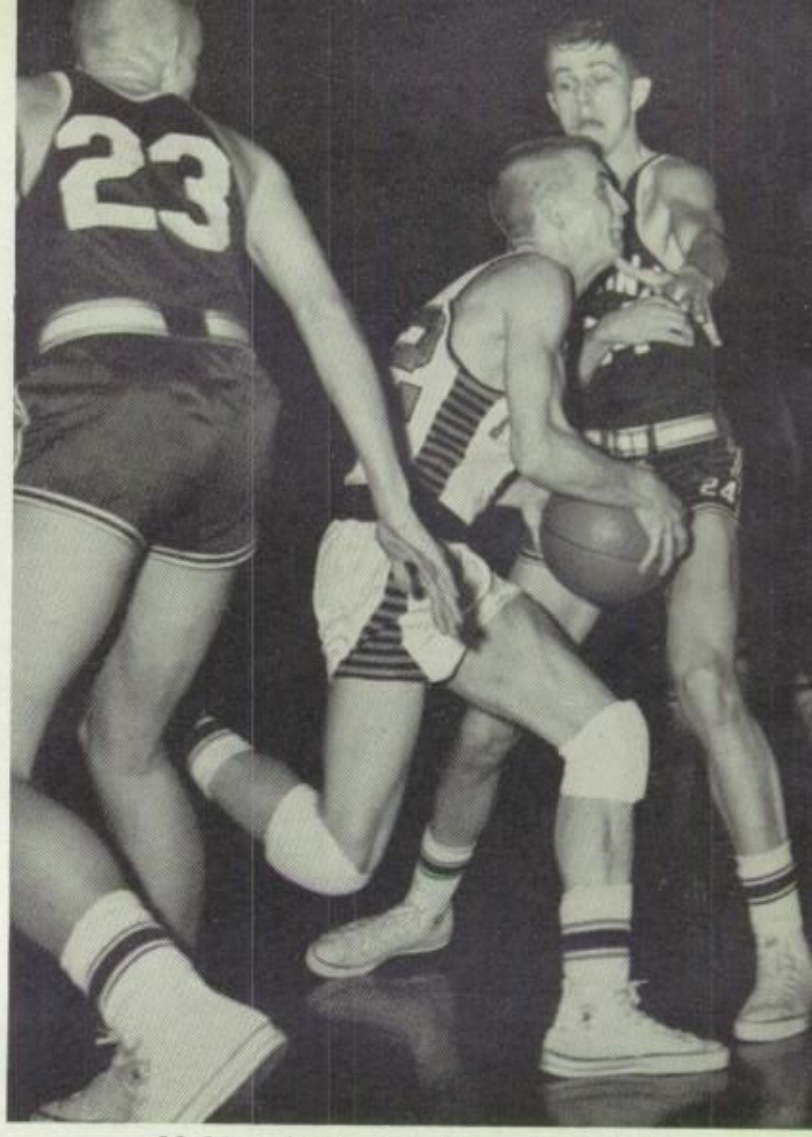


High flying Cherokee sparkles as he dunks another two points.

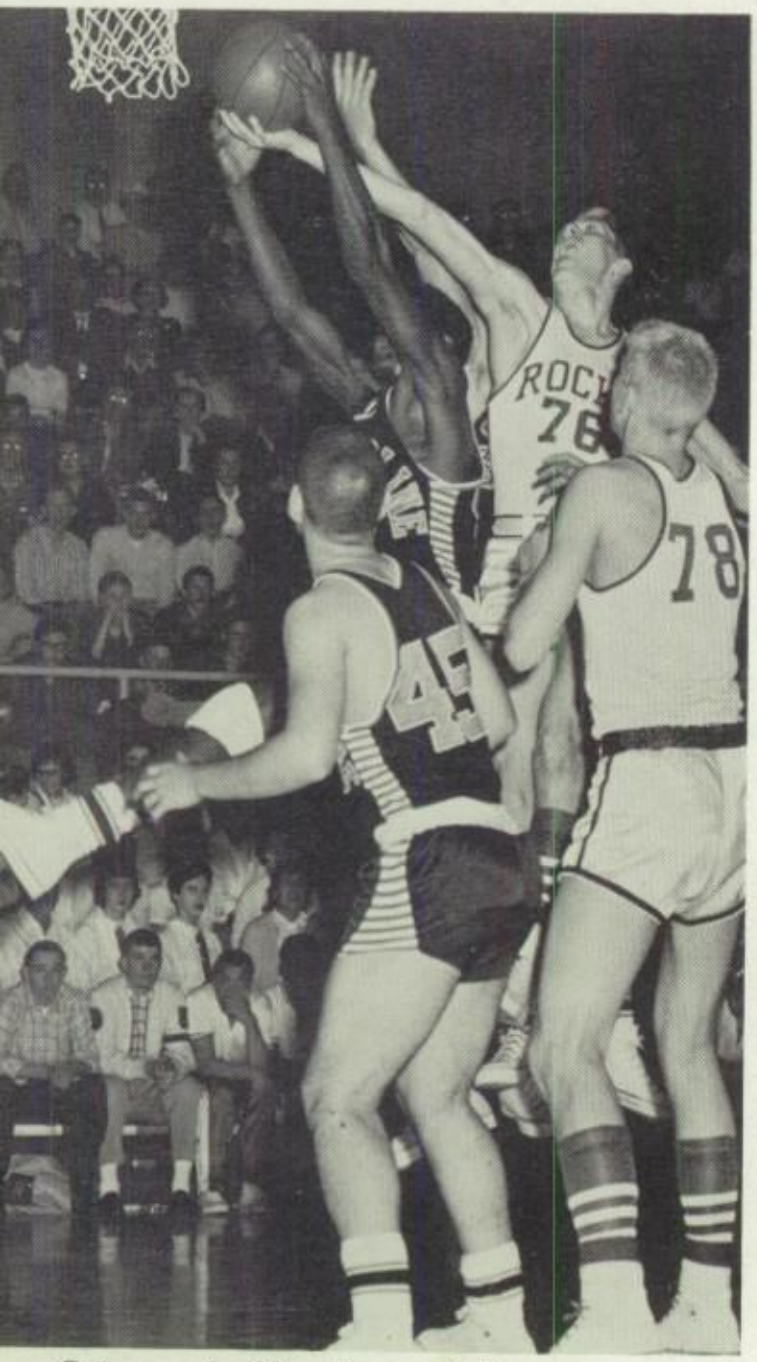




Off-sides on Bill Parsons (15) as Doby fumbles. Sahr goes to help while John Lawson (21) looks on.



Making faces was the order of the day as Delbert drives through Ted Ecker and Gary Rinden (23) of Moline.



Going up! Cherokee and Wayne Shellhouse head skyward. Don Nelson and Doby remain grounded.

Up! Up, and away! Superman has nothing over Jim Oltman.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Winning 19 out of 23 games gave the Panther Cubs one of the best records ever posted by an East Moline sophomore team. The scoring honors for the season went to Dave Martin, the sharp-shooting lefthander. Dick Lange showed the best eye at the free-throw line. Jim Pierson was the play-maker, while Jerry Koenig and Bob Pyevich handled the rebounding. The sophomores not only made a terrific impression on the fans, but they also gave coach Kivisto a bright thought towards the future.

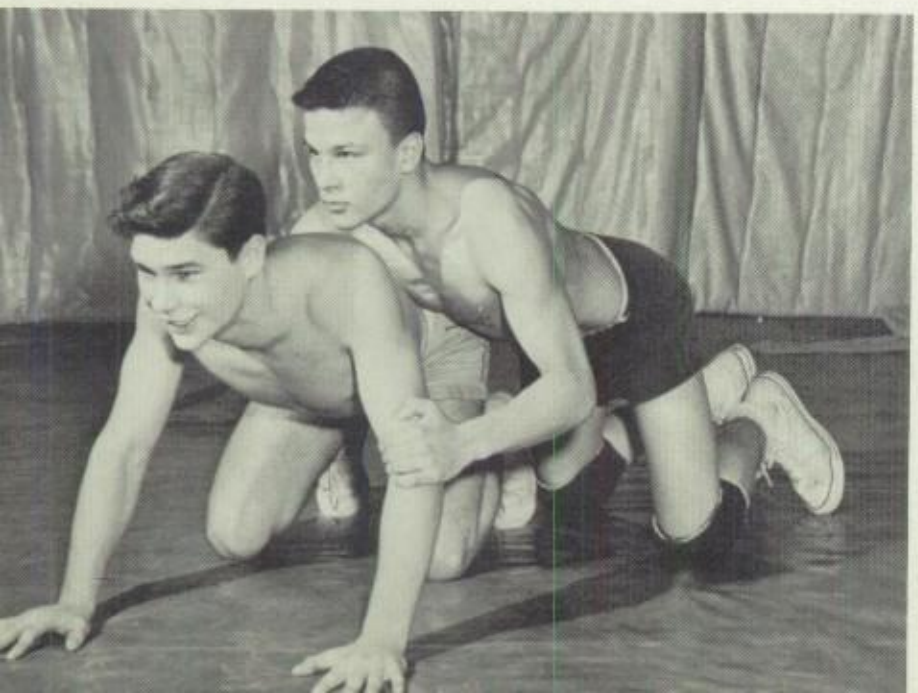
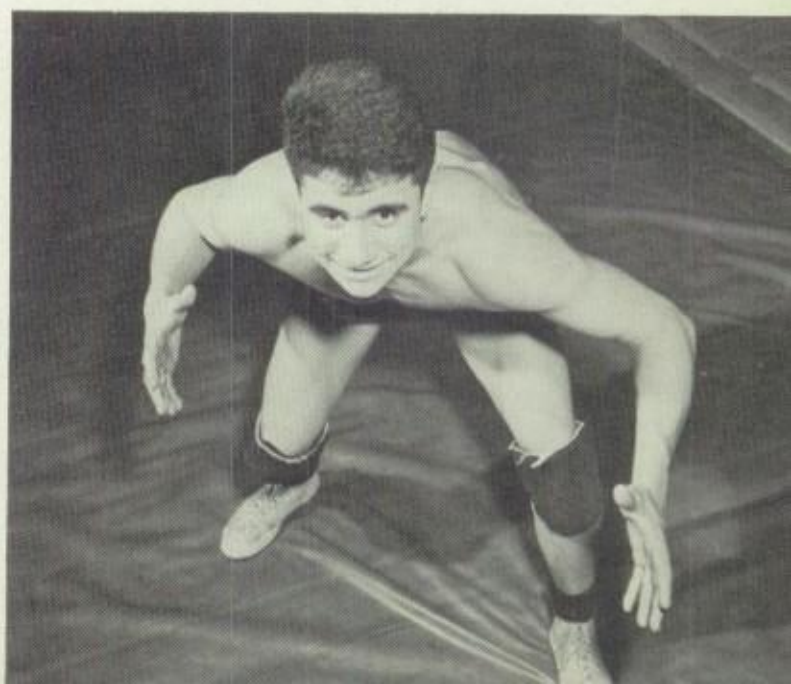
WRESTLING

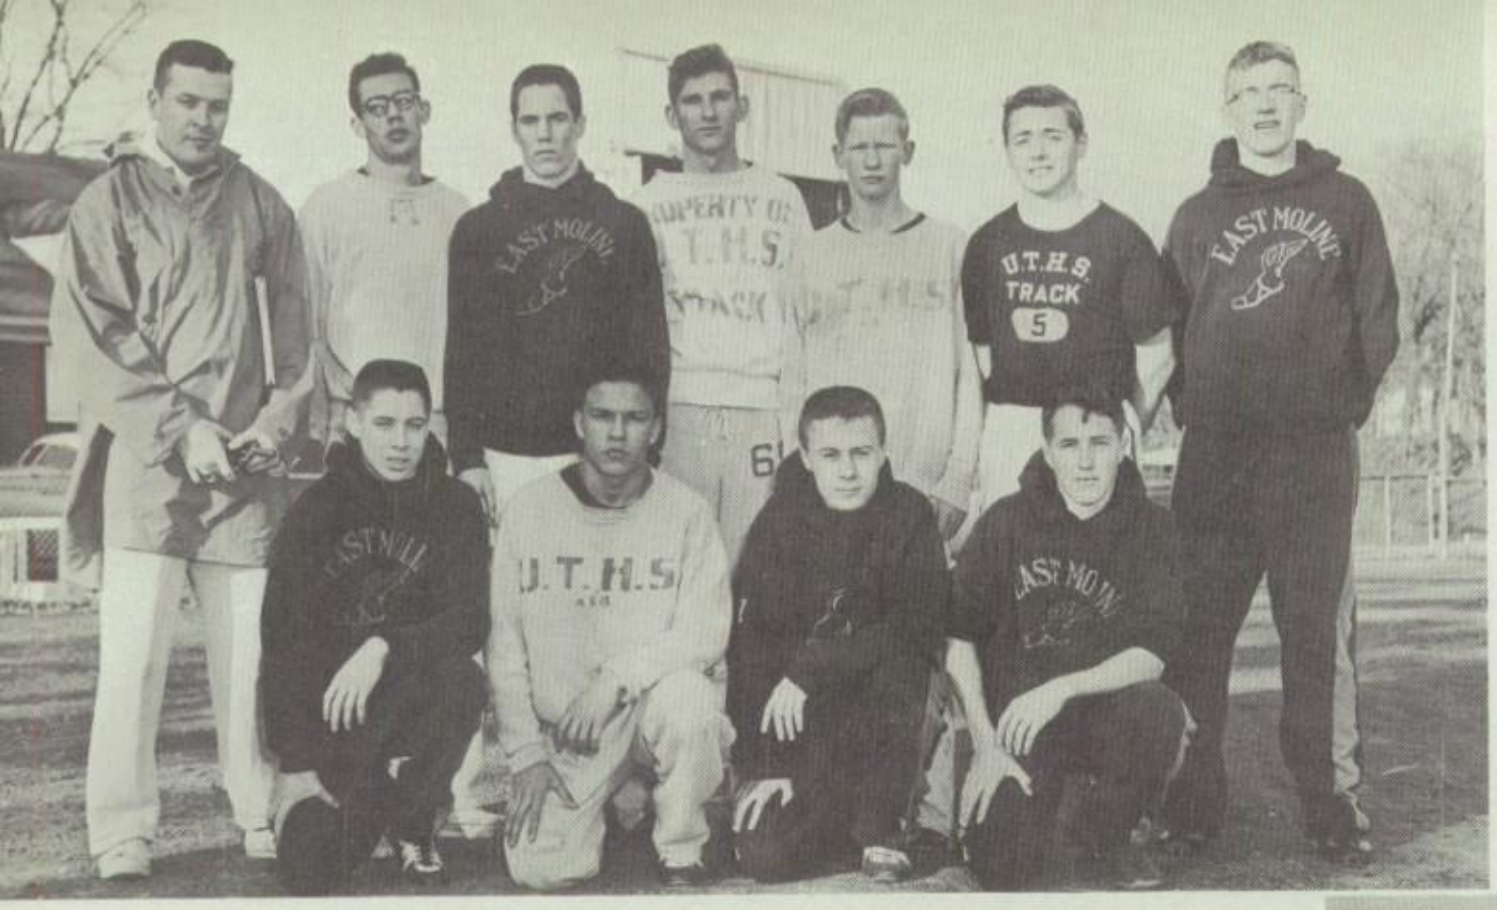
The grunt and groan squad this year was one of the best that UTHS has ever had, having won four meets and lost five. Wrestling this year were: Bottom Row: Junior Cacari, Ronnie Trice, Vince Monahan, Nate Lawrence, Paul Miller. Middle Row: Chuck Caldwell, Valentino Bravo, Chris Dennis, Bob Kennedy, and Gary Mueller. Top Row: Assistant coach Lou Matykiewicz, Jim Johnson, Don Guldenphennig, Kenny Beverlin, Levy Austin, Jerry Lancaster, Dick Hoskins, Ronnie Reyna and coach Jocko Wrenn.

Rough Ronnie Reyna deserves to smile. He was the team captain, and he had an individual record of 12 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties.



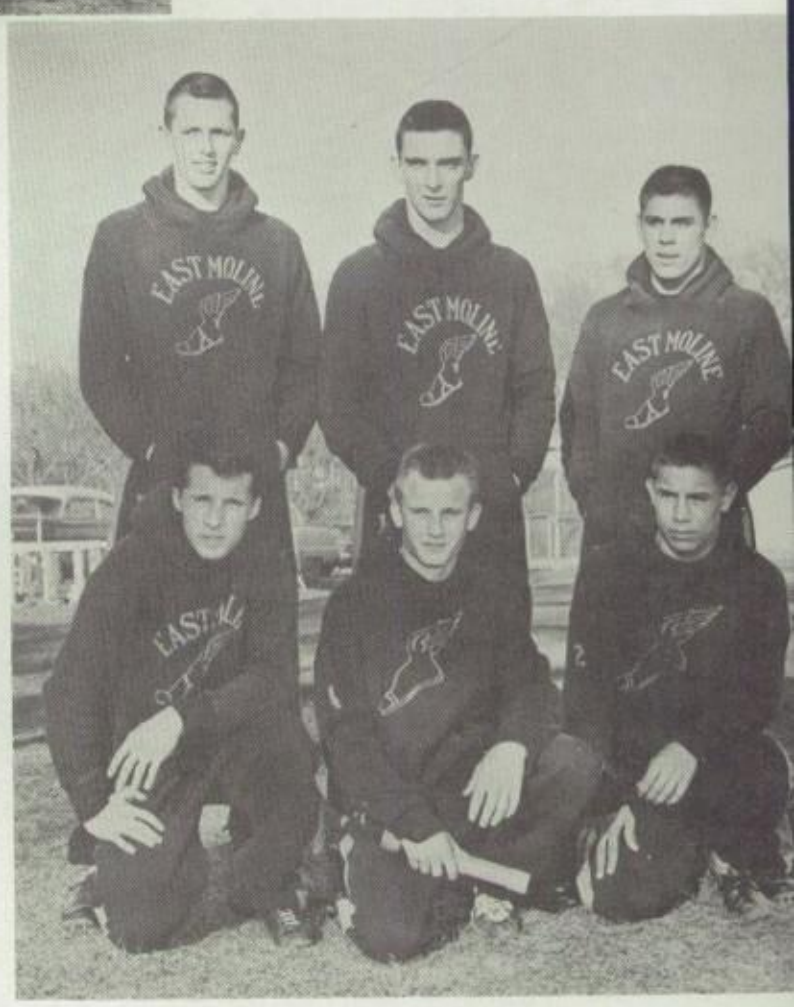
Jim Johnson thinks Val Bravo is only pretending to be tough.





These boys are the runners of the 440 yard and the 880 yard relays. Row One: Jerry Beverlin, Val Bravo, Bill Porter, Larry Meadows. Row Two: Coach Glenn Chivers, Leo Combes, Kenny Beverlin, Benny Dowis, Gary Natwick, Curtis Harsch, Cliff Arbogast.

TRACK



These boys participated in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash. Kneeling are: Bob Case, R. T. Huskey, John Cruz. Standing: Gary Hobbs, Jim Duff, Manuel Cruz.

Participating in field events during the track season were: Row One: Floyd Stockwell, Jim Gager, and Roger Schlaf. Row Two: Dick Hopkins, Bob Pyevich, Harold Paulsen, and Jim McMillin.

Six freshmen and a sophomore complete the field eventers. They are: Row One: Jerry Vande Wiele, Everett Van Valkenburg, and Ed Huggart. Row Two: Terry Mahan, Oberie Giles, Rodney Cook, and sophomore, Ron Frey.

Jim Duff, on the left, ran the 220, 440, and 100 yard dash this year and came in first in all three events in the meet with Galesburg. Manuel Cruz was also a 220 and 440 man.

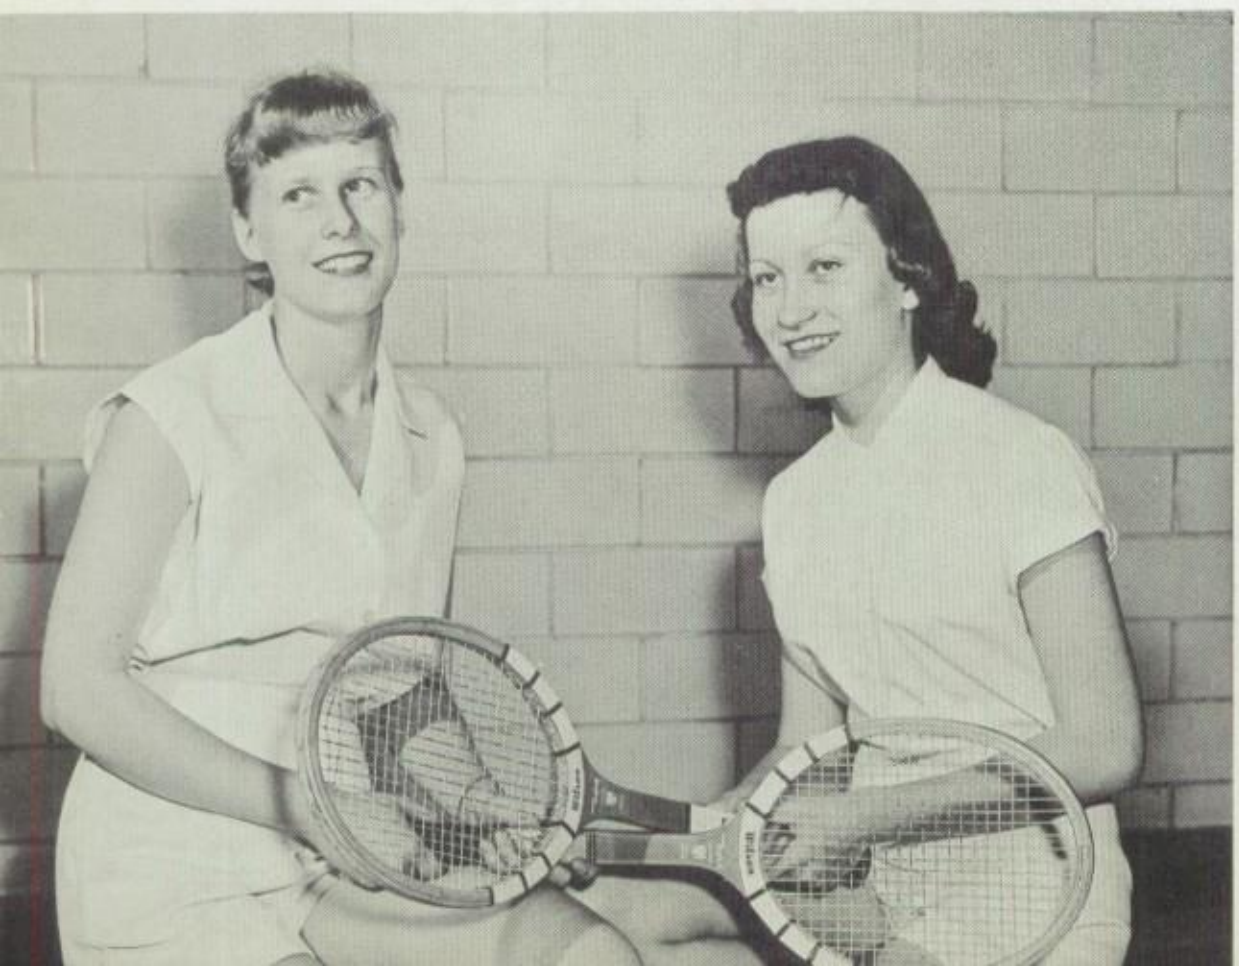
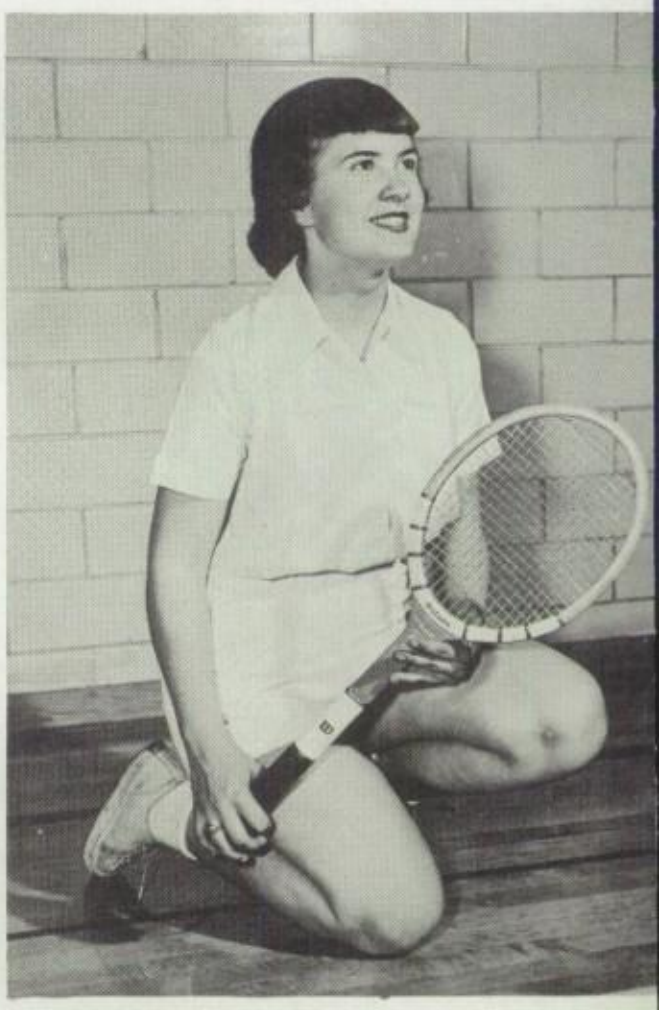
The girls tennis team, coached by Elaine Ruberg, swept through a successful season of many wins and few losses. With rackets well in hand, team and individual honors fell their way.

The runner-up doubles team of the Quad-City tennis tournament was from U.T.H.S. The two girls who obtained the honor were Janet Brissman and Deanna Van Quathem.





Gwen Lee made a great showing for U.T.H.S. by winning the Quad-City singles championship.

Coach Morgan's four top men this year were Ralph Goar, Keith Robinson, John Siefken, and Robert Walmsley.

TENNIS

With only three seniors on the squad, the tennis team, coached by Steve Morgan, came through for a fairly successful season. One of the brightest aspects of the team was its youth. The three seniors were John Siefken, Robert Walmsley, and Joe Russell. Showing great promise for next year were juniors Keith Robinson, Ralph Goar, and Dennis Sahr.

GOLF

The new golf coach, Joe Dhondt, helped his boys swing for a fruitful season. The six men back from last year's district championship squad were used as the foundation of his squad. Coach Dhondt's top three men this year were Joe England, Bob Miller, and Tom Rhodes. Golf, though a minor sport at U.T.H.S., has received great interest in the past few years.

Gary Stiener cautiously eyes up a putt on the 18th green. Looking on are Gary Cant, Tom Rhodes, and George. DeBo.

Bob Miller grins his approval as Joe England lays one down the fairway.

BASEBALL

The varsity baseball team was headed by a new coach, Bob Ewbank. There were many old faces around, however, to help coach Ewbank. Among the veterans were Gary Dobereiner, Delbert Carr, Loren Scott, Jim Fisher, Jim Ogle, Bob Adams, Bob Kennedy, and Ed Lasek. This year's squad featured depth and good pitching. The season proved to be fairly successful, and there are bright prospects for next year.

Art Peterson, Robert Walmsley, Ralph Goar, and Don Tallent were four of the top finalists in the ping-pong tournament.

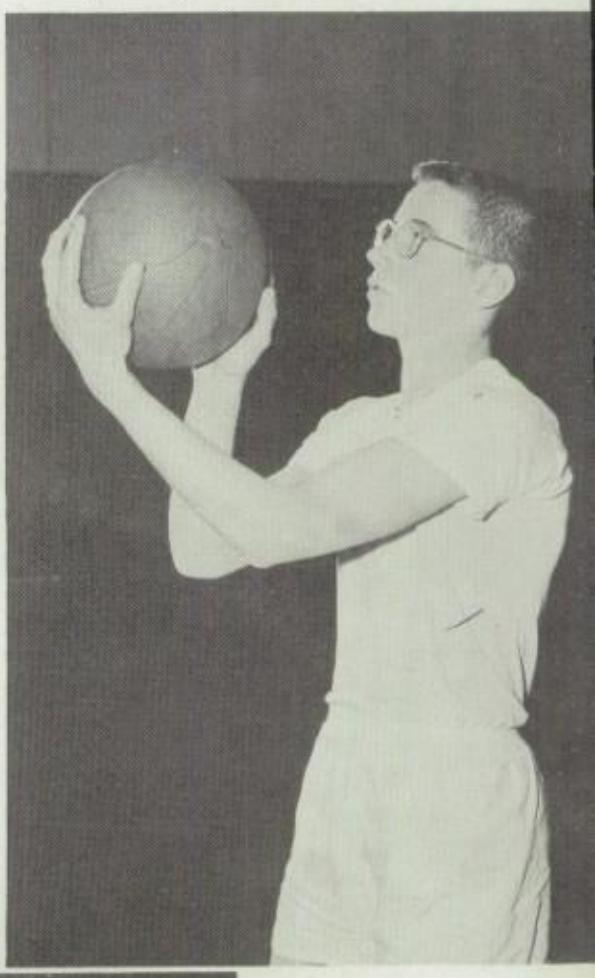
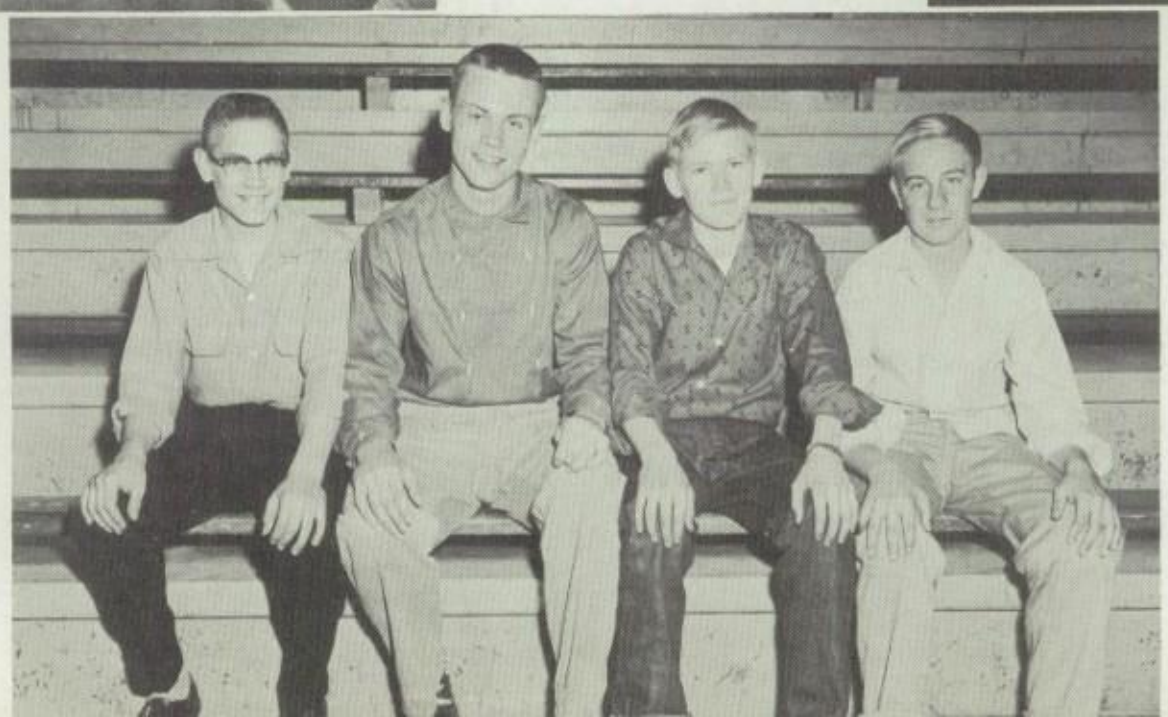
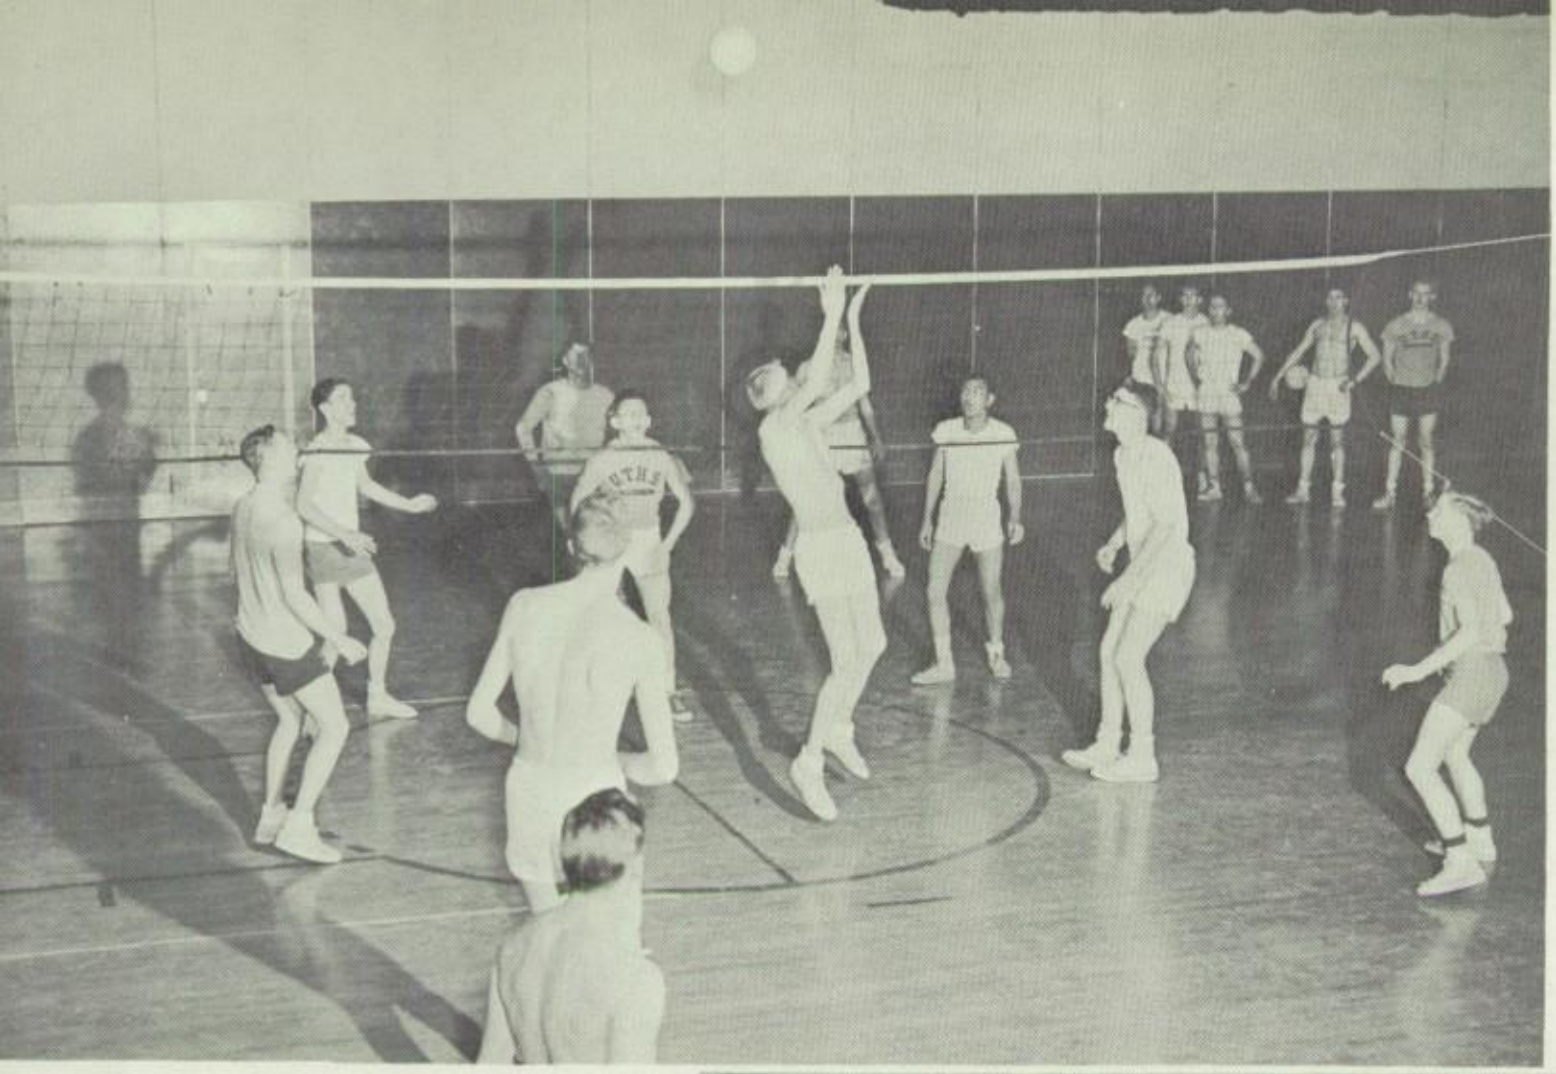
INTRAMURALS

Concentration and good form — Gary Mueller shows us the form he used to become the intramural free-throw champion. He hit 22 out of 25 free throws.



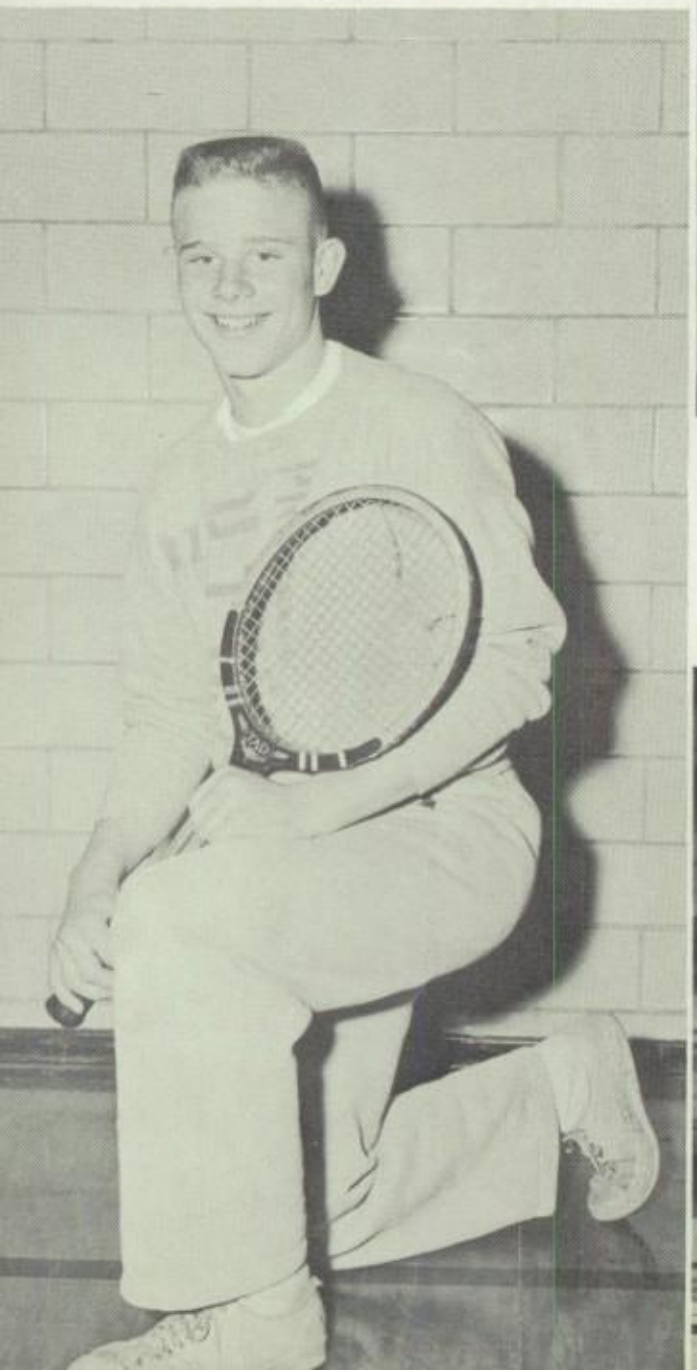
Members of the championship team of the freshman-sophomore intramural basketball league were Jack Jones, Jim Adams, Robert Berthoud, and Julyle Shannon. Missing are Tom Taylor and John Hantz.

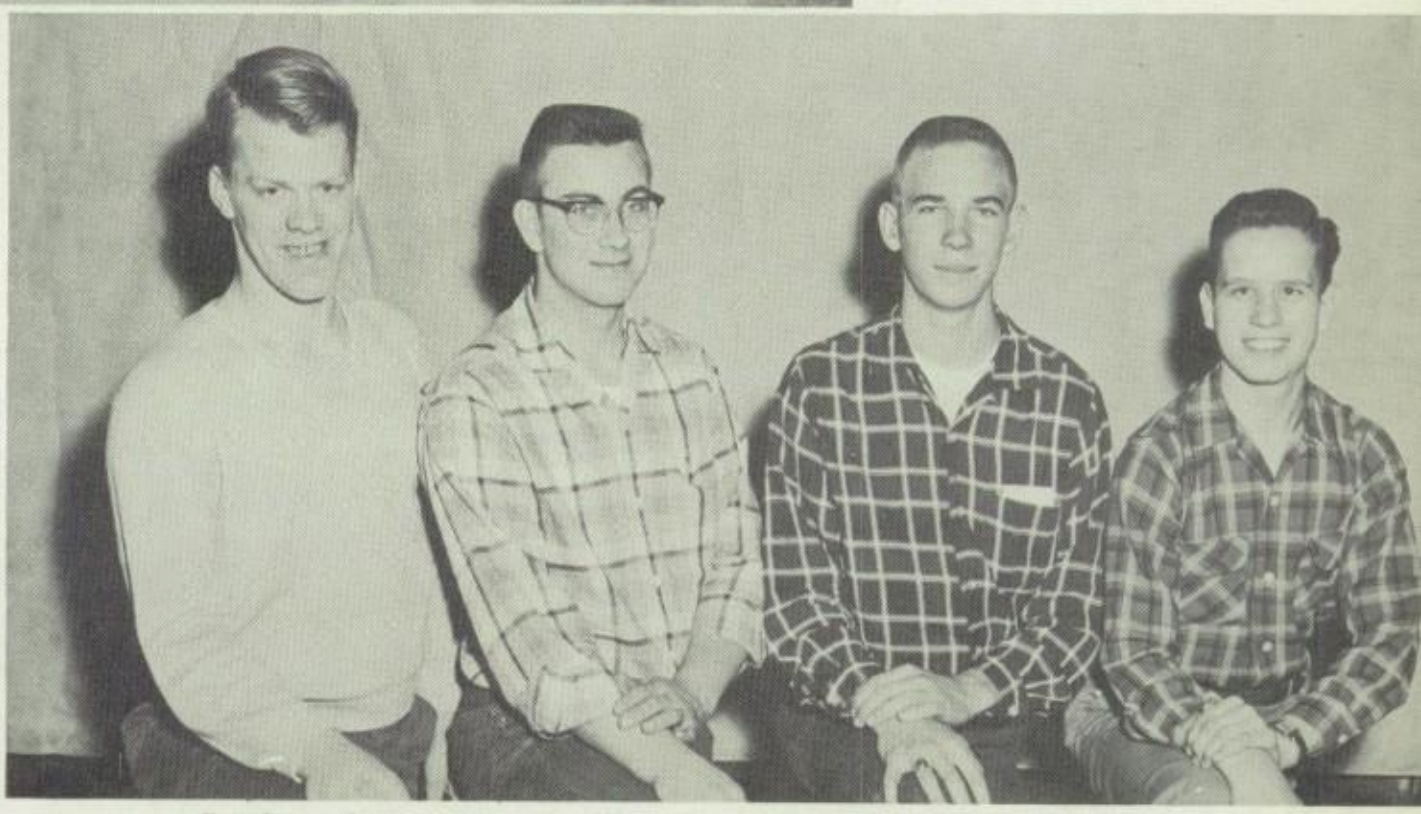




The volleyball tournament provided much fun and excitement for the fans. Members of the championship team were Roy Perry, Bob Carruthers, Bob Stribling, Bob Degraer, Felix Ramirez, Eddie Bowman, and Vernon Ward.

The best racket man in the tennis tournament this year was Jim (Happy) Valentine.





Bowling their way to the number one spot were Glenn Trout, John Meyers, Ed Seefeldt, and Calvin Marsh. Missing was George DeBo.

The two people responsible for the complete intramural program were Mr. William Brooks and Mr. William Yemm.

ADVISORY BOARD

Cleanup campaigns, assemblies, a dance, Pete the Panther, conventions — the interests and functions of our Advisory Board are many and varied. It is the student governing board composed of representatives for approximately every thirty students. Functions of the board are organization of Homecoming, discussion of problems and ideas relating to the school and students, sponsorship of a dance, and sending representatives to the district and state student council conventions. This year they developed the idea of a school mascot, Pete the Panther. Our Advisory Board president this year was also president of the Quint City Student Congress.

Seated: Gary Hobbs, parliamentarian; Bob Sullivan, vice-president; Roy Miller, president; Melinda Dailey, secretary; Pete Tsakanikas, treasurer.
Standing: Mr. Pierson and Mr. McCoy, sponsors.

The happy conductors — Mr. John Thoman and Mr. Mallie Williams.

Sharp marching formations, novelty numbers, and a get-together with the Boys Glee Club for a satirical account of our Moline visitors, provided a busy football season for our band. During the winter the ensembles were hard at work and presented a program for the Teachers' Institute at Aledo. In the spring the solos and ensembles attended the District Music Contest in Monmouth. Recognition for all the work was given when they took a trip to Chicago. The year's program wound up with the annual spring concert.

Four majorettes and a major — all in a row — Karen Suss, Lois McCreight, Lana Berghult, Janet Brissman, and Bobbie Cunningham.

CHOIR

Mr. Barron, Choir Director, did a very fine job this year in presenting fine musical programs for the student body and the public.

Stomach knots, butterflies, and cold, clammy hands were the order of the day around UTHS on March 2, when East Moline hosted the District Speech Contest. Emerging from the district contest to go on to the sectionals were the one act play, Angel Street; Zoe Stout, serious reading; Jack Keenan, comedy; Lois McCreight, oratorical declamation; Louise McCreary, extemp; Roy Miller, after dinner speaking; Sandra Wilcox, verse reading; and John Siefken, radio speaking.

AFTER DINNER SPEAKING

Doing the after dinner speaking this year were Sandra Sommer, Melinda Dailey, and Roy Miller.

RADIO SPEAKING

The voices that came over the mike in radio speaking belonged to Karen Leonhard, Charlotte Coleman, Sharon Wilson, Virginia Sutton, Bill Murphy, John Siefken, and Bob Stirratt.

ORIGINAL ORATION

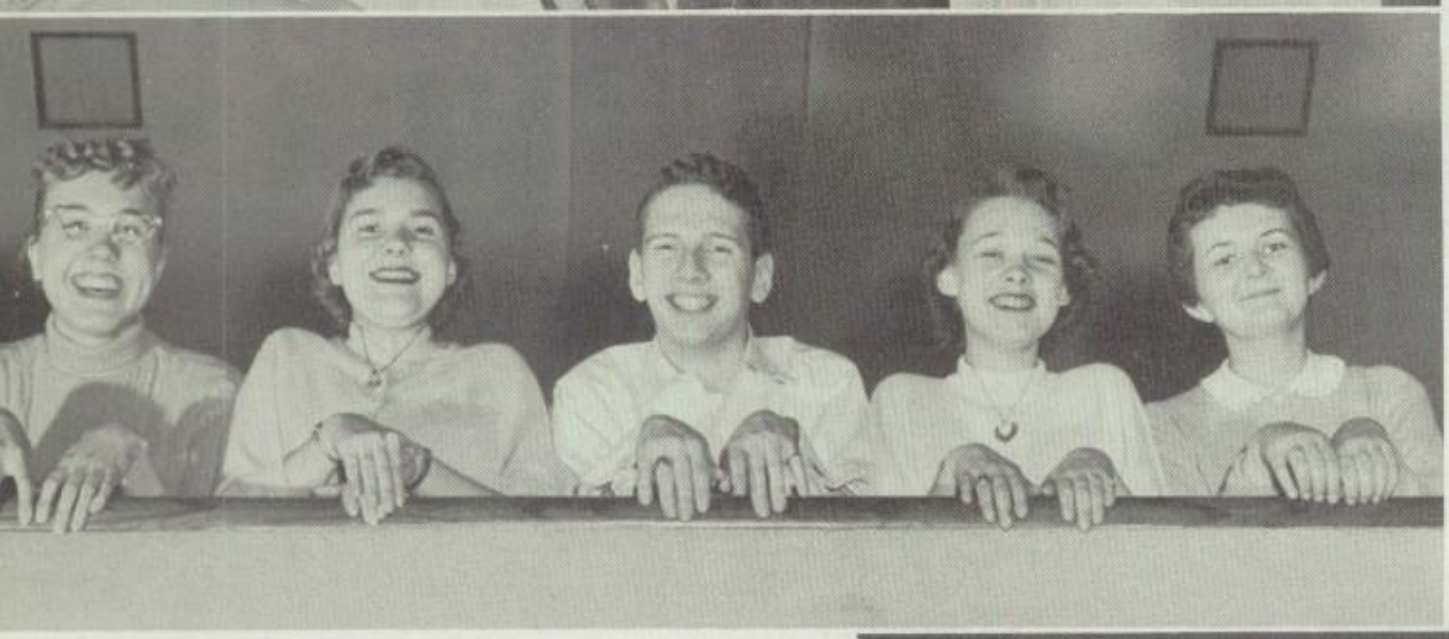
Representing UTHS in the original oration department this year were Bob Stirratt, John Siefken, and Bob Stevenson.

EXTEMP

Practicing with their advisor, Mrs. McNab, are the extemporaneous speakers, Roberta Lang and Louise McCreary.

ORATORICAL DECLAMATION

The students out for Oratorical Declamation this year were: Sitting: Adele Sable, Sharon Wooley, Barbara Greb. Standing: Lois Beaudoin, Lois McCreight.



ORIGINAL MONOLOGUE

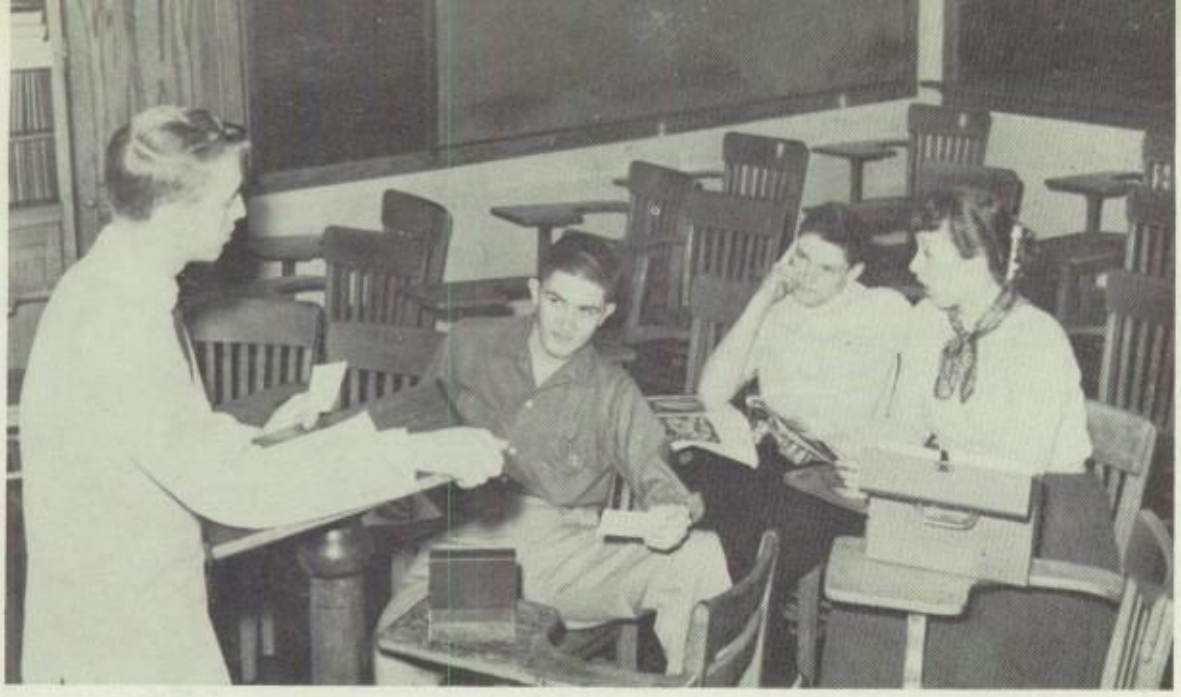
EXTEMPORARY VERSE

Row One: Lana Berghult, Ramona Gober, Karrol Jeffers, Mary Versypt.
Row Two: Zoe Stout, Sandra Wilcox, Adele Sable.



We don't believe you? John Siefken, Bob Stevenson, and Maureen Kelly look skeptical about what Roy Miller is telling them concerning the farm problem.

DEBATE

Winning their share of debates against some of the finest Illinois and Iowa teams, the East Moline debaters made some fine individual showings, too. Debating on the affirmative were Robert Stevenson and Maureen Kelley. The negative team was comprised of Roy Miller and John Siefken. Bob and John each received outstanding speakers ratings at the Geneseo tournament, and John received two at Galesburg.

Mr. Andrew Kossives, advisor, speaks to the members of the second debate team. From left to right they are: Don Sullivan, Peggy Eaton, Marilyn Pinner, Robert Cattoir.

Going over some points on their debate are, sitting: John Siefken, Maureen Kelly, Mr. Kossives, advisor. Standing: Roy Miller, Bob Stevenson.

Now what I think is — and so it goes as the Key staff prepares to put another paper to bed. All the opinion formers in this picture are Pat Collins, editor-in-chief; Sandra Sommer, girls sports editor; Sharon Griner, feature editor; Marie Tanck, news editor; Barbara Wassenhove, editorial editor; Mr. Levin, advisor. Standing in back are Dick Bond, sports editor and Lane Morgan, photographer.

KEY

Page makeup, late photos, galley sheets, and seventh hour gab and work fests added to the worries — and fun of the Key staff as they put out thirteen four page issues this year.

Besides publishing a top-ranking newspaper under the sponsorship of Mr. Levin, the staff found time to attend a press conference in the fall at the U. of Illinois, and to take a week-end trip to Chicago in the spring as recognition to the seniors for their work. Another means of recognition was the election of several members to Quill and Scroll.

Other activities included co-sponsoring the spring carnival and an assembly in the fall with the Skyline.

KEY STAFF REPORTERS

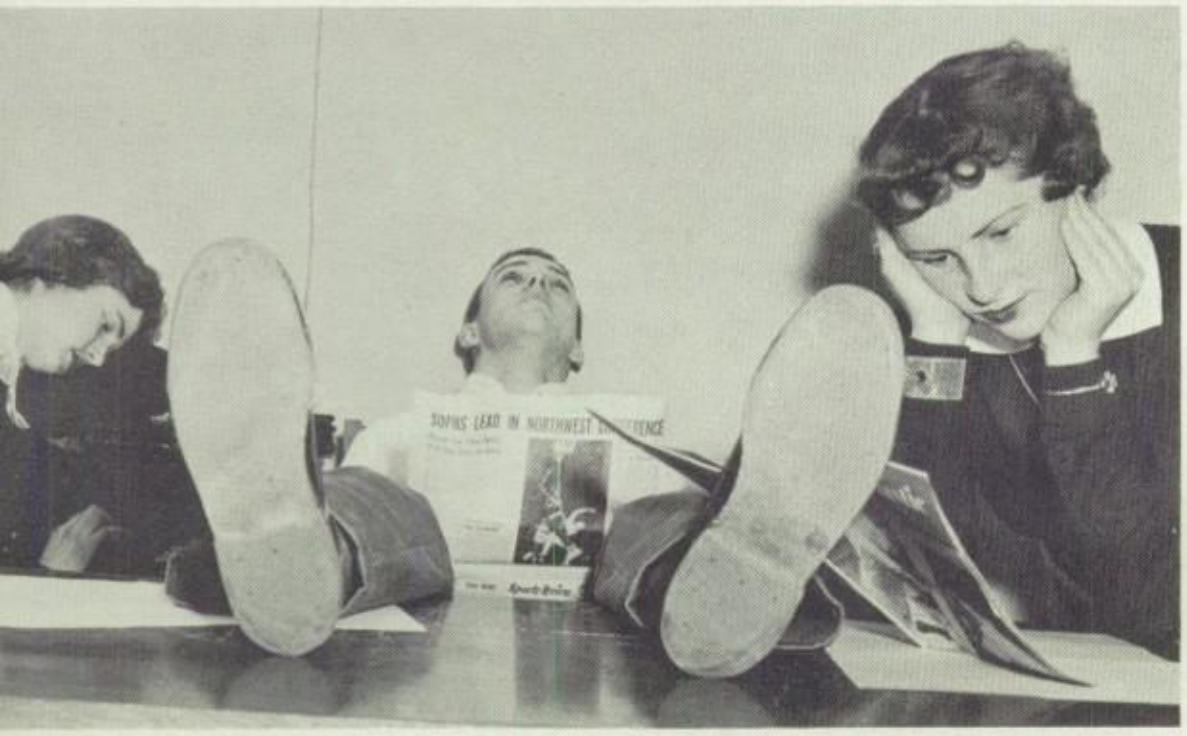
Row Two: Vivian McMullin, Nancy Serbousek, Shirley Hammerlinck, Carolyn Orey, Carol Anders, Carolyn VanVooren, Kathleen Hill.
Row Three: Roxanne York, Judy Stockton, Doris Ann Tanck, Carole White, Glenda Granell, Mary Hynd, Bonnie Wilkens, Nancy Gray.
Row Four: Dixie Reddick, Darla Reddick, Jozsef Lakadat, Ronald Shepard, Bob Degraer, Terry Allen, Tony Columbia, Terry Mahan, Zoe Stout, Kathy Smith.

Now — it's this way. Mr. Levin gives his business staff some instructions. Listening are Heloise Nelson, business manager; Arlene Gabriel, advertising; Pat Verlinden, advertising; Barb Miller, exchange editor; Carol Stipp, circulation manager.



How will I ever get it all done??? A typically busy seventh hour for Barb Wassenhove, Dick Bond, and Sandra Sommer.

Work! Slaves! — Pat Collins wields the big stick over Heloise Nelson, Arlene Gabriel, Sharon Griner, Marie Tanck, and Pat Verlinden, while Lane Morgan relaxes.

SKYLINE

Darkroom disaster, lost layouts, and the flu often slowed up the progress and added confusion to the deadlines — but the Skyline staff always came through, following the motto, The book must go out — and under Mrs. Erickson's threats and Millie or Joyce's cajoling.

This was a year when our stars were sometimes dull, but we shined them up and finally ended the year with a slam bang picnic and several members being elected to Quill and Scroll.

Our Editors — Joyce and Millie.

Money is the root of all — Skylines? Ron DeSmet, art editor and Roy Miller, sports editor seem oblivious to the business end of the book. But not Melinda Dailey, business manager; Sharon Wooley, patrons; and Pete Tsakanikas, subscriptions manager.

Are we busy? It would seem so. Helene Rivers, activities editor; Joanne Gomez, club editor; Mary Alyce Adams, faculty editor; Maureen Kelly, Barbara Greb, and Joanne Canatsey, copy writers.

Is that what they looked like? Carole White, Louise McCreary, Fern Kincaid, Barbara Arbeau, Ross Hailey, and Harry Drumm, apprentices, look over some old annuals.

Champaign bound — for the convention trip in the fall are Bob, Mrs. Frederick, Mrs. Erickson, Susan, Millie, and Joyce.

We're in the dark—sometimes and in the darkroom every free hour — Lane Morgan; Tod Dalrymple; Gary Hansen, our photographers.

A happy moment! The G.A.A. queen, Nadine Bosanac and king, Delbert Carr are pictured with runners-up Melinda Dailey and Russell Perkins minutes after the announcement of their being chosen "King and Queen of Sports."

Good sports — Because of their outstanding participation in sports, these people were honored as this year's G.A.A. royalty. Seated are Kathleen Gober, Nancy Hunter, Joyce Ickes, Carol Roman, Melinda Dailey, Russell Perkins, Joanne Windey, Donna Miller, Sharon Hall, and Deanna Van Quathem. Standing are Gary Dobereiner, Loren Scott, Tom Hopkins, Jim Duff, Nadine Bosanac, Delbert Carr, John Siefken, Jim Nelson, Ron Reyna, and Dennis Daniels.

G.A.A. ROYALTY

Wearing the crown as this year's King and Queen of Sports, Nadine Bosanac and Delbert Carr reigned over the festivities highlighting the G.A.A. year. Runners-up for this gala event were Melinda Dailey and Russell Perkins.

Providing amusement for the king and queen were members of the Junior class and members of the faculty who participated in a heated volleyball game. After many tense minute of play, the Juniors slipped past the faculty for a 23-22 decision. Co-captains of the Junior team, Dennis Sahr and Gwen Lee, accepted the victor's trophy.

Ten lovely athletes — Who says athletic girls can't be pretty? Proof positive that they can is given by Queen Nadine Bosanac and her attendents, Nancy Hunter, Carol Roman, Joyce Ickes, Joanne Windey, Melinda Dailey, Deanna Van Quathem, Sharon Hall, Donna Miller, and Kathleen Gober.

PANTHER PARADE

The Panther Parade, one of the few high school literary magazines, was incorporated as one of our school activities to induce better writing. The magazine gives students an opportunity to submit their manuscripts for publication. Much of the material comes from the English classes.

Reading and selecting copy to appear in the Panther Parade is the duty of the editorial board, composed of Sharon Griner, and Nancy Serbousek, seated, and Gwen Lee, Ron Lohse, Karen Leonhard, Melinda Dailey, and Sandra Sommer, standing.

Proudly displaying her Sadie Hawkins day catch, Carol Anders guards the grinning Mr. Barron with her trusty rifle.

With the hayseed still in his hair, Jim McMillin gives with some of his famous cornball jokes in the sophomore assembly.

Three "real cool cats," namely Duane Sanders on accordian, Bob Cattoir on the hot drums, and Warren Lawrence playing sax, had us all rocking and rolling in the aisles.

ASSEMBLIES

Electronics, the experiences of a Korean war orphan, a Christmas concert by the choral groups, the many pep rallies, and the riotous class assemblies, entertained and educated the students. Probably the most impressive assembly was the second annual National Honor Society Initiation with its speeches and candle lighting ceremony. If any, this was the one to make students want to make their own stars shine brighter in the galaxy of many.

Sweet melodies fill the air whenever the Trebletones consisting of Helene Rivers, Susan Kelley, Roxanne York, Marilyn Cushman, Lois McCreight, Bonnie Wilkens, and Sandra Kallman, are near.

Zoe Stout has murder in her eyes as she holds a razor to Jack Keenan's throat in a scene from the play "Angel Street."

From mystery and drama to hilarious comedy — the emotions of the viewers of U.T.H.S. stage productions were well satisfied during the play season.

In the fall of the year, with a cast consisting of Gary Pinkerton, Sandra Wilcox, Jack Keenan, Adele Sable, Zoerelda Stout, Bonnie Wilkens, Roy Miller, and Jack Smith, The Tender Trap by Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith brought forth a lot of sighs and laughs.

Angel Street by Patrick Hamilton was the contest play this year, winning second in the district contest. Zoe Stout, Jack Keenan, Lola Dunbar, Margaret Freebern, Hugh Morrill, Gary Pinkerton, and Robert Case made up the cast and worked to give a spine chilling performance for the public in March.

With a complete change of pace, the department brought tears of laughter to the eyes of the audience as they romped through Charley's Aunt. Rocking audiences with laughter in the play that once rocked audiences on Broadway were Gary Nahrgang, Jack Keenan, John Siefken, Vernon Robinson, Jack Smith, Kenneth Beverlin, Margaret Freebern, Susan Kelly, Rosa Thompson, and Bonnie Wilkens.

PLAYS

Lola Dunbar comforts Jack Keenan when Inspector Rough, played by Hugh Morrill and the policeman, played by Bob Case, finally catch up with him. His wife, Zoe Stout, and their maid, Margaret Freebern, are relieved that he has been caught.

Everybody is hard at work behind the scenes of "Angel Street" despite occasional horseplay with make-up tattoos like the one displayed on Roy Miller's back; otherwise, Zoe Stout, Margaret Freebern, Bob Case, Hugh Morrill, Lola Dunbar, Jack Keenan, and Roy Miller are busy with the routine jobs connected with make-up.

"What do you want, eh? What do you want?" asks Lola Dunbar of Jack Keenan in a love scene from the Victorian thriller "Angel Street."

"You see I didn't lose them," Zoe Stout says, as she shows Sargeant Rough, played by Hugh Morrill, and her husband, Jack Keenan, a drawer full of allegedly missing articles.

A constellation within
Our school universe,
We are together
For frolic, friendship — and learning.

BIBLE CLUB

For any students who are greatly interested in developing a strong Christian character, Bible Club offers an opportunity to exchange ideas and to gain an experience in group leadership. In the spring, a quizz team competes with similar teams from other Bible Clubs within this area. Under the guidance of Mrs. McNab, their sponsor, the Bible Club members have gained a richer understanding of Christian living and their own religion.

Row One: Byrl Weiss, Joyce Stoedter, Kay Wilkinson, Judy Huff, Karen Moeller, Sandra Moeller.
Row Two: Roy Perry, Phillip Grant, Roberta Lang, Virginia Jackson, Yvonne Ross, Ruth Hirst, Marilyn Pinner.
Row Three: Linda Laird, Gladys Willy, Sharon Passini, Cynthia Brewer, Carolyn Miller, Judy Thurber, Nancy Simher.
Row Four: Eugene Penner, Kenneth Kunkle, Gary Hansen, Glenn Trout, Harry Sedgwick, Pat Adams, Trudy Vines, Joyce Collins, and Sandra Smith.

F.D.A.

The Future Distributors really distributed their time among several activities this past year. They began the year with a wiener roast at Indian Bluffs. This was closely followed by the "Autumn Spin," a dance they sponsored after the Moline football game.

Mr. Leland, secretary of the Assn. of Commerce, spoke to the club on the duties of the local secretary of the chamber. Field trips were taken to Sturtevant's Dairy, Oscar Mayer, Davenport Shopping Center, Block and Kuhl, Amana Foods, Continental Store, and others.

Four club representatives, Bob Schnack, Dick Goderis, Dixie Van De Woestyne, and Mike Kenny, attended the Leadership Training Conference in Springfield in February. The year was rounded out with an Employer-Employee Banquet in April.

Officers for this past year — Seated: Dick Goderis, vice-president; Bob Schnack, president. Standing: Vera Brown, reporter; Dixie Van De Woestyne, secretary; Delbert DePorter, parlimentarian; Mike Kenny, treasurer; and Mr. Morgan, advisor.

Middle Row: Fran Jaecques, Diane Walker, Jack Keenan, Robert Cattoir, Ralph Goar, Roy Miller.

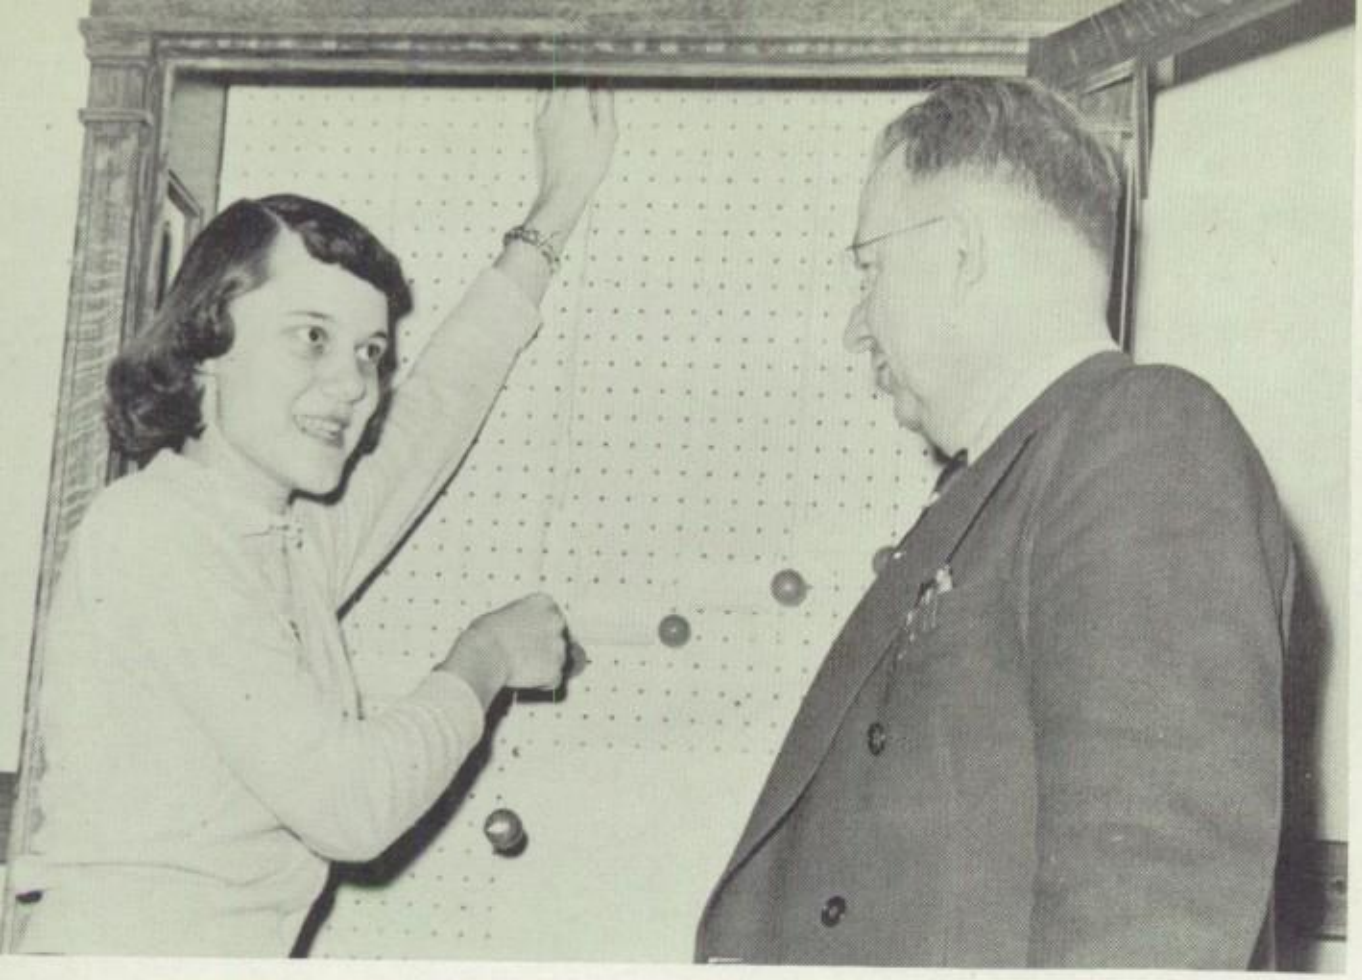
BIO-CHEM-ICS

The science department received a Christmas present this year — Bio-Chem-ics surprised them with a new science typewriter, so all our mad scientists have turned into mad typists.

Besides giving presents, Bio-Chem-ics tries to give its members a spirit of cooperation and a desire to carry on interests in science in our school and community. The club is open to upperclassmen and to second semester freshmen who have earned an A average in science and B in other academic subjects.

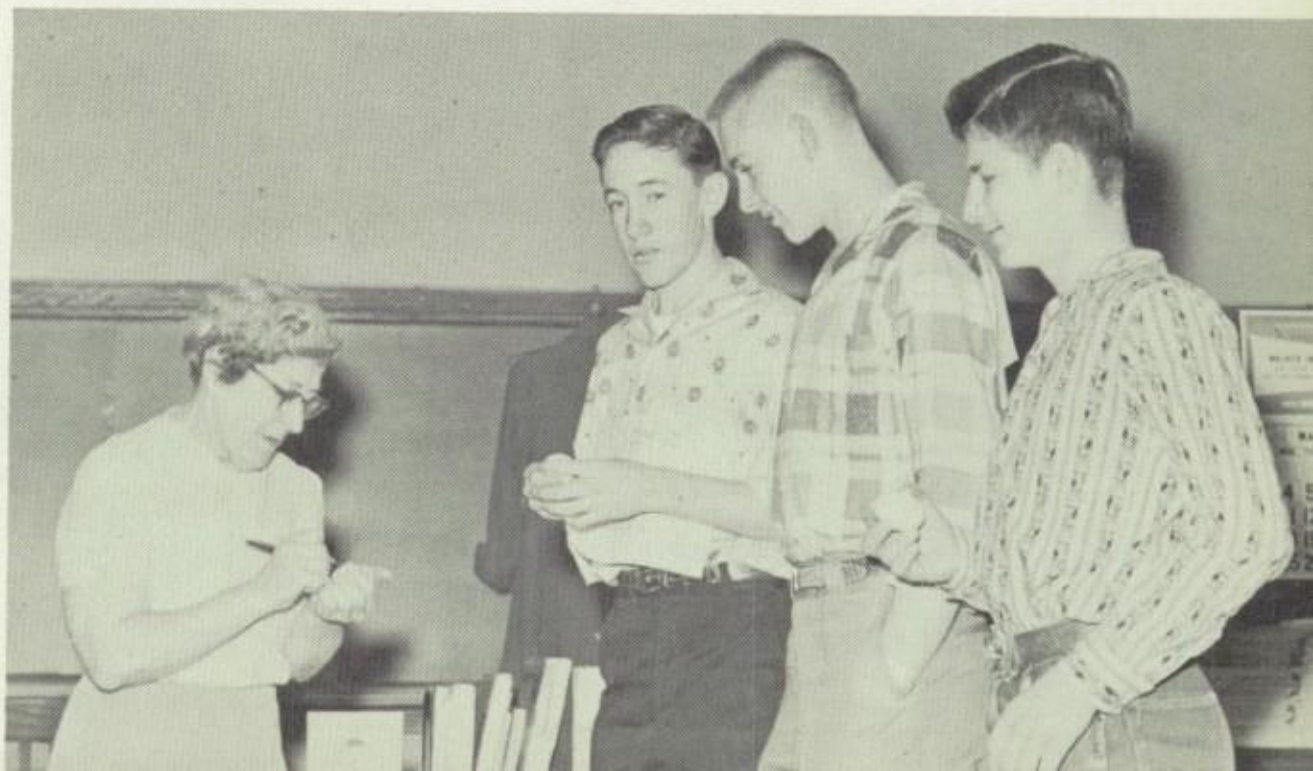
Bio-Chem-ics and the Camera Club combined to make a homecoming float and sponsor a dance at the end of the first semester. The club also tried to interest students in making exhibits at the first Annual Science Fair. Bio-Chem-ics also enjoyed several filmstrips on science, shown by their sponsor, Mr. Pratt.

The officers and sponsor of the Bio-Chem-ics Club this year are: Pete Tsakanikas, president; Glen Trout, vice-president; Mr. Pratt, sponsor; and Jackie Ross, secretary.



Jackie Ross, Secretary of Bio-Chem-ics and Mr. Pratt, Sponsor, are discussing the arrangement of our Solar System for exhibition purposes.

Will it work out? Checking out their problem of physics, Bio-Chem-ics members are working on a problem of determining the frequency of a sound wave.



Don't break that egg! Anxious Bio-Chem-ics plebes watch Mrs. Fredrick sign their eggs during the first days of their initiation into the club.

A tongue biting job — Carol Stipp and Darlene Vanden Bossche feed materials to file to Phyllis Maxwell.

BUSINESS CLUB

A happier and more efficient member of the business world — This is what each of the 34 members of Business Club hopes to develop into. As a means to this end, outside speakers from IBM and Moline Community College were brought before the group. Members learned much about the duties, opportunities, and requirements of office work.

Socialwise, the club had a Halloween party and sponsored a dance, the "Sweater Swirl," in January.

They also included a homecoming float and a carnival booth among their activities for the year.

Accounting for the fine showing of the Business Club this year were the officers: Janet Muse, treasurer; Mildred Krajnovich, vice-president; Miss Eleanor Allen, sponsor; and Joyce Ickes, president.

Row Two: Rowena Bedeian, Barbara Lueders, Rosa Thompson, Diane Waterman, Martha King, Lucille Allison, Sandra Smith.
Row Three: Sharon Cowser, Carolyn VanVooren, Arlene Redfield, Sharon Sears, Phyllis Maxwell, Connie Knox, Donna Schoonover, Heloise Nelson, Beverly Lavine.
Row Four: Carol Stipp, Barbara Mitacek, Mary Sue Stephenson, Joy Bates, Joyce Bates, Sharon Allen, Darlene Vanden Bossche, Sharon Carroll, and Nancy Rosenberger.

Nimble fingers?? Nope, just getting acquainted to see if we would like to do this next year, say Sharon McMillan, Diane Waterman, Vivian McMullin, Rowena Bedeian, and Sharon Allen.

As shown by these business club members, a very important part of a secretary's duties is transcribing her shorthand notes.

Busy Camera Club shutterbugs snapped every picture there was to snap with the two new cameras given them by Argus Camera, Inc., and then learned to develop, print, and enlarge the shots. The shutterbugs turned into shufflebugs at their "Semester Shuffle" after a basketball game. Filmstrips, guest speakers, and movies helped to increase the club members' knowledge of photography. Camera Club got together with Bio-Chem-ics to work on a homecoming float. They also put together another Telephone Directory under the directions of their sponsors, Mr. Pratt and Mr. Schmidt. The club also held a photo contest this year with three first place winners. The winning photos are pictured on these pages.

F. H. A. officers were, Row One: Helene Rivers, vice-president; Susan Kelley, secretary; Sandra Kallmen, reporter. Row Two: Linda Ragan, historian; Carole Blunke, treasurer; Miss Frane, sponsor; Roxanne York, recreational chairman. Row Three: Mary Guerrero, president; Dolores Kastner, assistant historian; Yvonne Cornell, project chairman; Sharon Mumma, degree chairman.

F.H.A.

Demonstrations on clothing, child care, and gift wrapping gave variety to the Future Homemakers of America meetings. Activities throughout the year were packing food boxes at Christmas time, co-sponsoring the Homecoming and Valentine dances, and attending a rally day at Annawan. Each of the girls had a home project to do during the year.

Time out for T. V. Mary Guerrero, Linda Ragan, and Carole Blunke tune in on the new F. H. A. set.

Look at those smiles of anticipation! F. T. A. members look forward to an interesting visit at Marycrest College.

F.T.A.

Taking boys and girls to the water fountain, playing with the children during recess, and supervising their activities in the lunchroom were a few of the things the F.T.A. members did during the day they spent in our public grade schools observing teaching procedures.

Other F.T.A. activities included taking part in American Education Week observance, attending Blackhawk Division meetings, and ushering during the Rock Island County Teacher's Institute. Two members attended the Regional Workshop at Rochelle in the fall and other members went to the state convention at Normal.

Our chapter of Future Teachers of America was started to give students desiring to be teachers a better understanding of their chosen field.

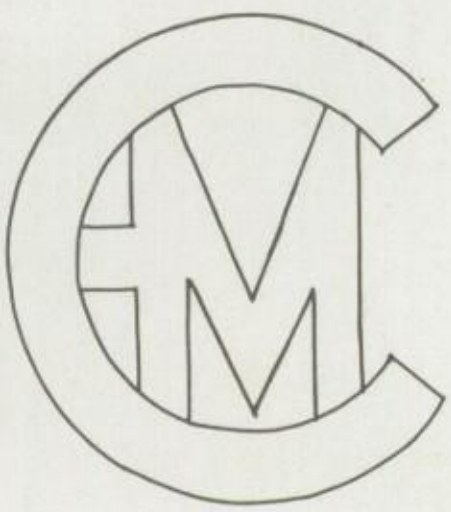
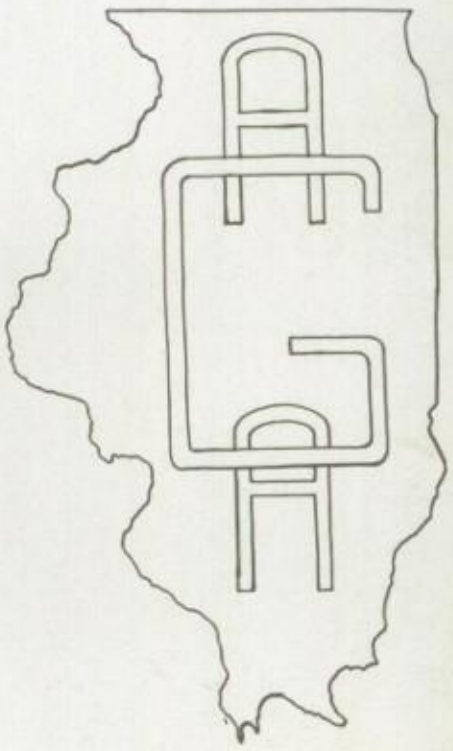
G.A.A.

Clear, starry skies could have been the forecast for the G.A.A. all year, from their tennis playing in the fall to the spring activities. The schedule of activities such as basketball, volleyball, and bowling went smoothly, exciting the interest of the freshman girls so that this was a record year for joining G.A.A. Spring activities were suitably ushered in with the crowning of Nadine Bosanac and Del Carr as G.A.A. queen and king, and a cheer rousing volleyball game between the faculty and students.





The bowling team whose scores were entered in the State G.A.A. tourney is composed of these girls. Left to right: Judy Hoehn, Sandra Sommer, Melinda Dailey, Sandra Hegwood, and Carol Kidd. Carol bowled a total of 423 points.

F.N.A.

The F.N.A. bake sale was the first money-making project they had this year. The second was their carnival booth. Various guest speakers connected with the nursing profession visited the F.N.A.'s meetings. The members got a close up view of a hospital at work on their field trip to St. Anthony's Hospital and an intimate glimpse of John Deere's medical department. Each Saturday two girls went to Augustana College to help out at the Crippled Children's Clinic. The Future Nurses of America is under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Buresh.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Selling Panther pins, sponsoring two dances, and a banquet were some of the activities of the Lettermen's club this year. They worked this year to fulfill the purposes of their club; to promote understanding between the athletes and the school and the public; to encourage the students to participate in athletics, and to promote school spirit. Those boys eligible are the winners of one major letter or two minor letters. Mr. Kivisto, basketball coach, sponsors the club.

Heavy trophy, but a light heart as Roy Miller is presented the Scholar Athlete Trophy by Mr. Kivisto.

LETTERMEN OFFICERS—

I helped win that one — Ron and Jim look over the trophy case.

Library club officers and advisors are Mrs. Benson, Phyllis Maxwell, secretary; Pete Tsananikas, president; Madeleine Claus, treasurer; Miss McNutt.

LIBRARY CLUB

Busily helping students and teachers find books, magazines, and other library materials, Library Club members learn how a library is run and organized. The Library Club's many activities included sponsoring a dance after the basketball game with Morrison, organizing the Illinois Student Librarians Association with the help of student librarians throughout the state, having Pete Tsakanikas elected vice-president, sending Janet Loding and Pete Tsakanikas as delegates to the Illinois Student Librarians convention, and being host to student librarians from Rock Island, Mercer, and Henry County who came to hear a nationally famous author speak. Our student librarians learned much about libraries under the leadership of their sponsor, Miss McNutt.

Members of the Library Club seated are Carol Ovens, Rochelle Achilles, Barbara Van Quathem, Diana Walker, Sandi Hegwood, Janet Loding, Larry Meadows, Judy Hoehn, and Linda Ragan. Standing are Connie Knox, Deanna Van Quathem, Dorothy Homan, Lana Berghult, Sandra Rohren, Gary Maxwell, Calvin Marsh, John Siefken, David Howell, and Mike Knight.

RIFLE CLUB

Even the girls belong to rifle club and many times walk away with the top shooting records. Shooting with a small bore .22 match rifle, the members of the club shoot at an official NRA 50 foot indoor range. Matches this year were with Moline, Davenport, and the sectional match. Mr. Oliver, club advisor, enjoys it as much as the members.

Seated: Diane Walker, secretary; Karen Leonhard, exec.
Standing: Mr. Oliver, sponsor; Don Lohse, treasurer; Ron Lohse, president; Patrick Dubuisson, vice-president.

These officers made for a successful year for the Thespians. Sitting: John W. Stevens, sponsor; Karen Leonhard, treasurer. Standing: Gary Pinkerton, president; Pete Tsakanikas, secretary; Jack Keenan, vice-president; Ron Lohse, scribe.

THESPIANS

People interested in drama here at UTHS hitch their wagon to a star — National Thespians. Thespians is a national honor society for those people who have earned ten points acting, working on production or business ends of a play, or other committees. It is an educational organization of teachers and students for the advancement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools. Jack Keenan, through accumulation of points from his many dramatic activities, is an Honor Thespian. Gary Pinkerton and Zoerelda Stout have earned three stars and Roy Miller two stars.

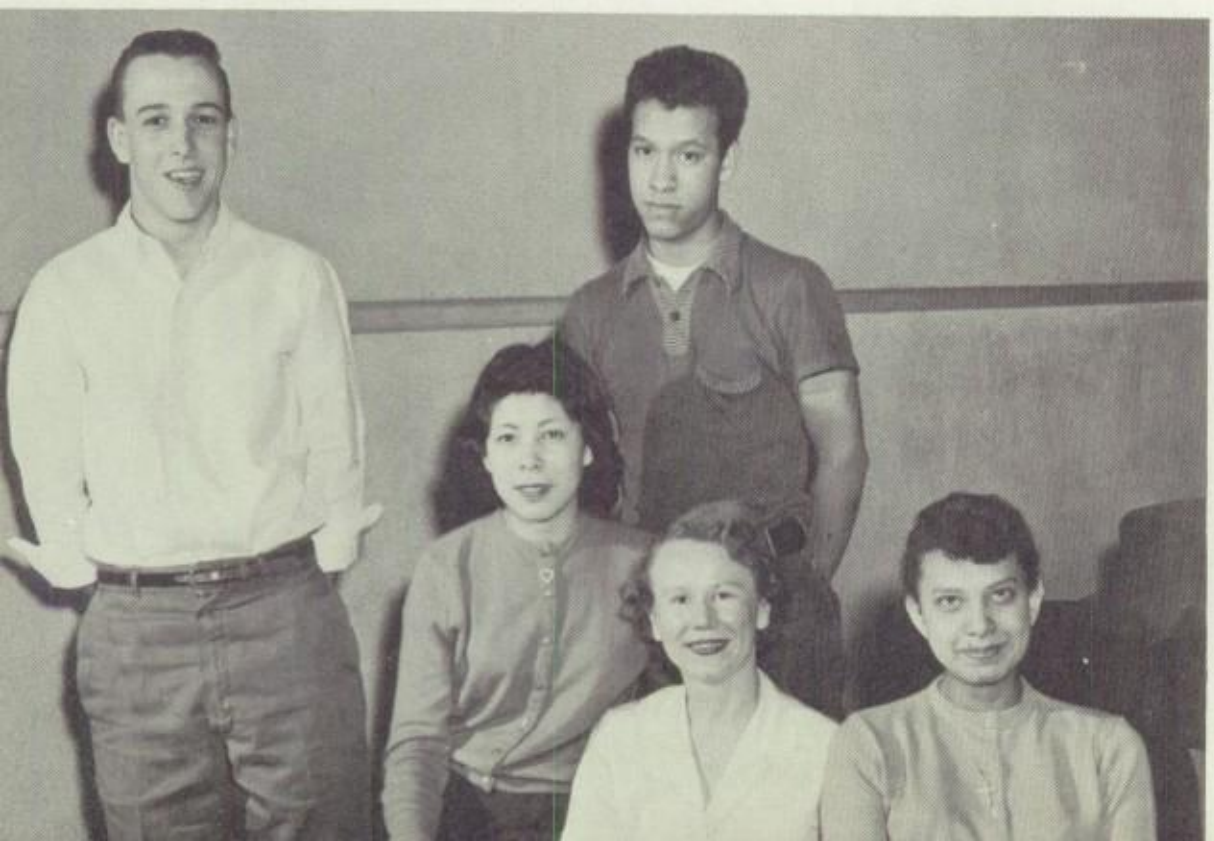
SPANISH CLUB

A door prize of a free Cha-Cha lesson, a pinta hanging from the center of the room, and bull fighters on the walls added colorful notes to the Spanish Club dance, "Fiesta Time." The club was typically South of the Border again in their May assembly.

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to promote interest in the Spanish language, in Spanish speaking people, and in their countries and customs. Programs to help accomplish this purpose were presented in Colona and at the annual Pan-American banquet.



During the year these officers planned the program for the Spanish Club. Standing: Dick Bond, president; Joe Rangel, vice-president. Sitting: Delores Herrera, treasurer; Miss Thoeming, sponsor; Mary Louise Sierra, secretary.

Row Two: Council members, Larry Schultz, Pete Sears, Cliff Davis, Ronnie Reyna. Row Three: John Cavanagh, sponsor; Jim Robinson, reporter; Joe Rangel, council; Bob Ferry, council.

TRI-MIC

Floats, dances, and prominent speakers from local industries were among the activities of the Tri-Mic Club this year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Cavanagh. The club co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance and a Valentine dance with the F.H.A. On April 12 and 13 twenty-five members attended the Illinois State Industrial Education Club Convention. Student projects were entered in the fair held in conjunction with the convention.

Y-TEENS

One of the most active clubs in our school is the Y-Teens under the sponsorship of Miss Pokrajac. Heading the list of their year's activities was the "Winter Whirl," the dance held after a home game with Monmouth on December 7. Next on the list was decorating the Christmas tree in front of the general office. During the football season they made orange and black shakers. Their carnival booth, and many other activities contributed to their fun and to the welfare of our school.

Forming the letter Y are the officers and sponsor of the Y-Teens. Going up l-r are Rowena Bedeian, secretary, 2nd semester; Merry Frazier, treasurer, 2nd semester; La June Johnson, president, 2nd semester; Sandra Sommer, vice-president, 1st semester; Connie Knox, treasurer, 1st semester; Carol Kidd, president, 1st semester; Miss Pokrajac, advisor.
